

DEATH FOR ROBBERS.

Fate That Awaits Bandits In New Mexico.

HELD UP SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN

The Five Men Captured by Wells Fargo Express Officers and Deputy U. S. Marshals In Eastern Arizona—The Penalty Is Death In That Territory.

SILVER CITY, N. M., Dec. 15.—Wells Fargo Express company's special officers and deputy United States marshals have captured in Eastern Arizona five of the train robbers engaged in the attempted robbery of the Southern Pacific's Sunset flyer at Stein's pass last Thursday night. They will be brought to New Mexico for trial. The penalty for train robbery in this territory is death.

WOMEN WANT A BUILDING.

Patriotic Ladies Meet and Plan For the New National University.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A meeting of prominent American women has been held at the Hotel Raleigh to discuss plans for a George Washington memorial building in connection with the proposed national university in this city. The meeting was secret, but it is reported that the ladies expect to raise $250,000 for a memorial building, to be devoted to the administration offices of the university, $25,000 to be raised in time to lay the cornerstone in December, 1899.

It was also suggested that Feb. 22, Washington's birthday, be made a day of national offering to the fund, and that the children of the public schools throughout the country should be invited to contribute 1 cent each to the fund.

Among those present at the meeting were the chairman, Mrs. Ellen A. Richardson, Boston; vice president, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice, Ohio; Mrs. William T. Carter, Pennsylvania; Mrs. H. H. Adams, Connecticut; Mrs. W. A. Roebeling, New Jersey; Mrs. Clara R. Anthony, Massachusetts; Mrs. I. S. Boyd, Georgia; Miss Charlotte F. Dailey, Rhode Island; Mrs. William Reed, Maryland; Mrs. Hope S. Chamberlain, North Carolina; Mrs. L. D. M. Sweet, Maine; Mrs. M. K. McNeil, South Carolina; Mrs. Alice B. Castleman, Louisville, Ky.

CATHOLIC BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

Board of Trustees of Mutual Association In Session at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Dec. 15.—A joint meeting of the board of trustees of the supreme council of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association of the United States and of the board of trustees of the state organizations is being held here. The object of the joint session is to devise ways and means to promote the organization. It is in a flourishing condition on now and the members hope to increase the membership. The C. M. B. A. is organized in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Kansas and Canada.

There national officials attended the meeting: supreme president, Michael Brennan, Detroit; supreme first vice president, John Molampoy, Pittsburgh; supreme recorder, C. J. Hickey, New York; supreme treasurer, James M. Welsh, Hornellsville, N. Y.; supreme marshal, D. D. Hughes, Titusville, Pa.; trustees, William J. Bulger, Chicago; Frank Randall, Cleveland, and J. T. Kenna, Detroit, the legal adviser of the order.

HAITI AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

This Time Italy Will Forceably Collect a Claim.

PORT AU PRINCE, Dec. 15.—More trouble of a kind similar to the recent Lueders affair threatens Haiti and Port au Prince may have to face another menace of bombardment.

Italy has long had claims against Haiti and these, it is alleged, have never been settled. One claim, which has been pending since 1894, was the case of the merchant at Port de Paix, whose vessel and cargo, worth $80,000, were, it is alleged, illegally seized and sold by the Haitian government. The other case was that of an Italian fisherman—who was assassinated here last October, the man who was accused of committing the crime not having been brought to justice yet.

Italy, it is reported, intends to push the settlement of these claims at once and rumors have reached here that Italian warships are being sent here to back up the demands.

FIGHTING CIVIL SERVICE.

A Committee of Foes Appointed to Frame a Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The special committee of Republican representatives in congress, who are seeking to change the civil service law, has held its first meeting and outlined its action. It was determined to divide the work between two sub-committees, one to draft a bill changing the law and another to gather evidence on the defects of the present law, its extension beyond the original purpose of the law, etc.

The purpose of the latter is to make clear to the house, when the subject shall come up, that a change is imperative. Chairman Grosvenor named as the sub-committee to frame a bill Messrs. Hepburn of Iowa, Pearson of North Carolina and Evans of Kentucky, and as the sub-committee to examine into defects of the law, Messrs. Tawney of Minnesota, Odell of New York and Steele of Indiana. Their work will begin at once.

DIAZ HONORS BRYAN.

He Sent an Aide to Call on the Late Democratic Candidate.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 15.—President Diaz sent one of his aide-de-camps to call on Mr. Bryan to arrange for his pleasure. Then Mr. Bryan paid his respects to General Clayton, the American minister, and later went to drive in the forest of Chapultepec.

He drove with Thomas Braniff, president of the Bank of London and Mexico, ex-Governor Crittenden and General John B. Frisbie and later was a visitor with Mrs. Bryan at the chamber of deputies and was admitted to the floor, the congressmen all rising out of respect to the leader of the Democratic party in the United States. He was invited to speak, and talked of parliamentary institutions and of the progress which Mexico is making on all hands. His reception in the chamber was enthusiastic.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR.

A Public Reception to Be Held In Nashville Tonight.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 15.—Tonight a public reception will be held by the Federation of Labor convention and speeches will be made by President Samuel Gompers; P. J. McGuire, first vice president; James O'Connell, third vice president; W. P. Prescott, president International Typographical union; George McNeill of Boston; Andrew Furuseth of San Francisco; Harry Lloyd, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners; M. D. Ratchford, president of the United Mine Workers; Robert Aske of the Northern Mineral Mine Workers; Thomas I. Kidd of the Amalgamated Machine Wood Workers.

Indications are that the Federation will be in session about ten days, though business is being pushed. Resolutions were adopted against the annexation of Hawaii.

A resolution was adopted providing for the organization of all stationary engineers preparatory for making the fight for an eight-hour workday in 1898.

JAPAN BUYS AMERICAN IRON.

Southern Firms Ship a Large Consignment to That Country.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 15.—Alabama pig iron, which has already obtained a foothold in the various markets of Europe, will now enter Japan in good quantities. The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company and the Storr's Iron and Steel company of this city has shipped 5,000 tons of iron to Pensacola, Fla., where it will be loaded on a steamer bound for Kobe and Yokohama, Japan.

The purchasers are Japanese brokers, who have heretofore bought their iron chiefly in England. Several trial orders were recently shipped to Japan, and they proved so satisfactory, so local iron men say, that the Japanese have begun to buy regularly from this state, several more large shipments already being in sight.

MURDER DUE TO IGNORANCE.

Indian Killed His Insane Squaw For Fear She Would Eat Others.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 15.—Indian Agent Short has arrived here from Berens river with particulars of a horrible murder, which occurred eight miles west of Berens River reserve. An Indian woman was suffering from the typhoid fever and became insane, her husband thought she had become a "wenigo," and decided that she must be killed in order to prevent her from eating other members of her band.

Grabbing his wife around the body with one arm, he grasped her hair with the other hand and twisted her head until her neck was broken. The Indian was taken into custody on a charge of murder.

BRIEF SENATE SESSION.

A Bill Introduced to Change the Immigration Laws.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The session of the senate lasted 15 minutes. After a few bills and resolutions had been offered adjournment was taken out of respect to the president, who was attending his mother's funeral.

Mr. Kyle (S. D.) introduced a bill to change the immigration laws so that immigrants shall have the test of education made by the United States consuls at the points nearest their homes.

Sanguinelly Story Not Believed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Spanish legation here has absolutely no information respecting the semi official announcement coming from Havana to the effect that General Julia Sanguinelly has tendered his services to the Spanish cause. There is reason to believe that the story obtains no credence.

A Protest From Japan.

SYDNEY, Dec. 15.—The Japanese consul has formally protested to the premier, G. H. Reid, against the unfriendly character of the proposed legislation as to aliens.

LEFT SCENE OF GRIEF.

The President Gone Back to Washington.

THOUSANDS AT THE FUNERAL.

Viewing of the Remains of Mother McKinley Had to Be Curtail d Owing to the Large Number of Spectators—Simple Services at the Grave.

CANTON, Dec. 15.—The special train on which the Washington party came to attend the funeral of Mother McKinley left at 8:30 o'clock last evening, the president's car Newport being attached.

The train carried President and Mrs. McKinley, General and Mrs. Alger, Secretary Bliss, Attorney General and Mrs. McKenna, Postmaster General Gary, Secretary Wilson, Secretary to the President Porter and Mrs. Porter, Hon. Whitelaw Reid, Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Day, Mr. Abner McKinley and daughter Mabel of New York; Congressman R. W. Taylor of this district; Hon. H. H. Kohlsaat, Ernest Hamill and Walter H. Wilson of Chicago; Miss Mary Barber, Mrs. McKinley's niece; Miss Sarah Duncan of Cleveland, the president's niece; Jack Duncan, Mrs. George Harter, Colonel J. N. Taylor of East Liverpool.

Although it rained almost incessantly all day the crowd attending the funeral of Mrs. McKinley was numbered by thousands. The First Methodist Episcopal church, doubled in capacity by throwing open the Sunday school rooms and gallery, was filled to overflowing long before the beginning of the services. The great rostrum of the church was a bank of flowers. After the simple ceremony thousands after thousands passed through the church, each stopping an instant at the altar to take a last look at the remains. This procession was composed of 3,000 people who had gained admission to the church, and thousands of others who stood outside in the rain waiting the time when they could get in one side door, pass the altar and go out at the other side. When this had continued an hour it was found necessary to close the side doors and remove the casket to the funeral car, and it was feared the interment would be delayed until after dark. During the services and until after the remains had been viewed the family and close friends occupied the front pews of the central section of the church.

With the president, in the first pew, was his sister, Miss Helen, and his brother Abner, with their sister, Mrs. Duncan of Cleveland. Immediately back of them was the aged sister of the departed, Mrs. Osborne, of Youngstown, surrounded by grandchildren and other near relatives. Back of these were members of the cabinet and the Washington visitors, Congressman Taylor, representing this district; Hon. Whitelaw Reid of New York, H. H. Kohlsaat of Chicago and many other intimate friends of the family from various points. When the cortege reached the cemetery, the burial ground of the McKinley family was surrounded by an immense crowd. A canvas canopy had been erected near the open grave for the shelter of the family and those assisting in the last sad rites.

Here the beautiful wreath of flowers which the president and Mrs. McKinley had placed upon the graves of the children they lost long ago, and of the president's father, brother and sister, were literally covered with the numerous floral offerings sent by sympathizing friends from all over the country. The hundreds of floral offerings included besides the beautiful pieces sent by the cabinet and the Washington friends, a large emblem of the G. A. R., in which the flag was worked out in red and white carnations sent by Canton post, of which the president is a member; a beautiful piece from the president's old regiment, the Twenty-third O. V. L., and another from the Knights Templar.

The exercises at the grave were very short and simple. The casket was tenderly lowered into the grave by the pallbearers and the simple liturgy service of the Methodist Episcopal church was read responsively by Presiding Elder E. D. Holtz of this district and Rev. E. O. Manchester. Rev. MacAfee of Columbus pronouncing a benediction.

Last evening, the cabinet officers and other distinguished officers, except the McKinley family, took dinner at the home of Mrs. George D. Harter. The president and the immediate family remained at the old homestead until train time.

SENATOR HANNA LAUGHED.

He Ridicules Reports Regarding Serious Illness.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Senator Mark A. Hanna laughed at all reports from Washington that his health would compel him to go to Europe, even if he were to be re-elected to the senate.

"I am going to Washington tomorrow, and they will find me pretty lively," said Mr. Hanna. "I have been ill for three weeks, but I feel very much better now."

Mr. Hanna spoke confidently of the outlook at Washington. He believes that the tariff will yield sufficient revenue for the needs of the government.

He does not see why legislation allowing national banks to increase their issues, in accordance with the suggestions in the president's message, cannot be enacted.

FAVORS CHRISTIAN SABBATH.

A Hebrew Rabbi In Cleveland Urges Its Adoption.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—Local Hebrew congregations are much exercised over a sermon preached by Rabbi Moses J. Gries in the temple, in which he urged the adoption of Sunday as the Hebrew Sabbath. The board of trustees of the temple will take the subject up and consider the advisability of making the change.

Requests to Charity.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—The will of Charles Fleischmann has been probated. It is dated Jan. 27, 1897. The charitable bequests are $2,000 each to the Associated Charities and Hebrew Relief union; $1,500 to the Jewish home; $1,000 each to the Catholic Orphan asylum, Protestant Orphan asylum, Colored Orphan asylum and Jewish hospital. After making special provision for his widow he directs that the remainder be divided into four shares, one to go to the widow and one to each of his children. The estate is estimated at $2,000,000.

Three Victims of Coal Gas.

TOLEDO, Dec. 15.—Otto Lemke, aged 22, and his sister, a few years younger, have been found dead in their beds, and in an adjoining room, the father of the two children was found in a dying condition. Escaping coal gas from an anthracite heating stove was the cause of the tragedy. The father, whose name is Fred Lemke, is still in a critical condition and but little hope of his recovery is entertained. A married daughter, who happened to call at the house, made the discovery.

An Early Populist Convention.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—The national committee of the People's party will meet in St. Louis, Jan. 12, to prepare the call for its national convention, which will be held in April. This will be the convention of the Middle-of-the-Road Populists and they come thus early to the front because they desire to place their platform before the country at once to avoid possible fusion. It is stated that the main plank in the platform will be a demand for the referendum.

Wealthy Man Kills Himself.

AKRON, Dec. 15.—Frank D. Howard, aged 45, shot himself through the head and expired a few minutes later. He had been in poor health for several months. His friends feared his mind was affected. Before expiring he said: "I would have done this long before, had it not been for my mother." Mr. Howard was one of the wealthiest residents of this city. He was a son of the late Dr. E. W. Howard, and for years had been engaged in the manufacture of agricultural implements.

Killed While Hunting.

BEAVER DAM, Dec. 15.—Alfred Hochstetler has been instantly killed here by Jacob Somney, his brother-in-law, while quail hunting. The men became separated in a thicket when the dog flushed a covey. Somney fired into the covey, nearly the entire charge taking effect in Hochstetler's heart. The coroner is investigating the case.

ALLEN MUCH DISPLEASED.

He Writes Criticizing the President's Cuban Policy.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—Ethan Allen, national president of the Cuban American League, has addressed a sensational letter from New York to Mr. J. H. Paine, treasurer of the local Cuban League of this city. He says that the league has awakened patriotic public sentiment, and then says:

"But I fear McKinley. Personally, I have great regard for him, and as a Republican he is my president. But the money power has his ear and will tempt him to delay the work now ripe for him to do. This will be a grave mistake. No man can safely postpone doing now whatever is the proper thing to do. It is trifling with conscience as well as duty. Thus it will be received by the American people, and I among them. Our secretary had a long conference with the president two days ago, and thus was he impressed, though kindly received.

"The Democratic party is now beginning to appreciate Cuban sentiment and to make it a party question. If our Republican president puts over the final stroke for Cuba for another year the Democracy will leap to the advantage of such action. You may have noticed that Tammany Hall here gave $20,000, a few days ago, to the Cuban cause. It was their first installment of the price of popularity. I am well informed as to the intention of other Democratic leaders all over the country, and hence speak by the card."

To Reform American Youth.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—The eighth national convention of the Boys' and Girls' National Home and Employment Association of America met in the Y. M. C. A. hall in this city. The speakers agreed that the figures of crimes among the youth of the land were appalling, and it was decided to work earnestly during the two days' convention in search of a remedy.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Policy Predicted In These Dispatches Adopted.

MORGAN'S RESOLUTION FAVORED.

Against the Retirement of Greenbacks and Treasury Notes—Early Enactment of Bankruptcy Bill Favored—Proceedings of the Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The caucus of the Democratic members of the house of representatives resulted in the adoption of resolutions defining the party policy on the questions of Cuba, finance and bankruptcy. The caucus was largely attended, 101 of the 125 Democratic members being present, despite the stormy weather. Representative Richardson of Tennessee acted as chairman and Representatives Cummings of New York and Cowherd of Missouri acted as secretaries.

Representative Bailey of Texas took the initiative by presenting the following series of resolutions:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this caucus that the Democratic members of the house of representatives ought to resist all efforts, direct or indirect, to retire the greenbacks and treasury notes.

"Resolved, second, That we are opposed to and will resist all attempts to extend the privileges of national banks, or to reduce the taxes which they now pay.

"Resolved, third, That we favor the early consideration and passage of the senate resolution recognizing that a condition of war exists in the island of Cuba, between the government of Spain and the Cuban people.

"Resolved, fourth, That we favor the early enactment of a just and wise bankruptcy law."

The first three features of the resolutions, on finance and Cuba, were considered separately, the discussion being vigorous and unanimously favorable. Mr. Bailey made the main speech, urging that the Democratic members should take their position promptly against those financial movements, now assuming formidable dimensions, owing to the recommendations given to them by the president and secretary of the treasury. He also spoke for a clear-cut position in favor of the recognition of Cuban belligerency, as embodied in the Morgan resolution, which passed the senate during the extra session. There was not a dissenting voice to Mr. Bailey's propositions, and the first three resolutions were carried by a unanimous vote, the result being received with hearty cheers.

The fourth feature of the resolutions, declaring for a just and wise bankruptcy law, met with some opposition. Mr. DeArmond of Missouri argued that it was not expedient for the party to take a position favorable to a bankruptcy bill at this time. The resolution was supported by Messrs. Bailey, Simms of Tennessee and Swanson of Virginia. The resolution finally prevailed by a large majority, although Mr. LeArmond and about half dozen others registered their votes in opposition to this course.

On motion of Mr. Maddox of Georgia arrangements were made for the usual congressional committee to conduct the congressional campaign of 1898.

The committee is to consist of one member from each state, territory and the District of Columbia, and nine senators to be chosen by the senate Democratic caucus.

The caucus adjourned after being in session just an hour, having accomplished its results with practical unanimity.

APPROPRIATION BILLS.

They Received Consideration at the Brief House Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The house after a session of about two hours adjourned out of sympathy for the president, whose mother was buried at Canton. The time of the session was devoted to the consideration of the executive, legislative and judicial appropriation bill. It was decided to postpone the consideration of the item providing for the maintenance of the civil service commission until after the other features of the bill had been concluded. It was apparent from the remarks made that the entire subject will be exhaustively debated. There is seemingly no disposition to curtail the discussion and it probably will not be concluded before the holiday recess. So absorbing is the topic that almost the entire time, despite the fact that the consideration of the question had been technically postponed, was consumed in debate upon it.

Two Forgers Sentenced.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Dec. 15.—T. C. Beatty, nephew of General Beatty of Ohio, and at one time a well-known attorney in a Michigan town, has pleaded guilty to forgery, together with Harry Otis, alias Howard. The arrest of the men was made by the American Bankers' association. Beatty and Howard passed a forged draft at the East Stroudsburg National bank on the Hide and Leather bank of New York. Judge Craig sentenced the men to 15 years' imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary. Beatty, it is said, is wanted in some of the southern states to answer similar charges.

GAGE'S FINANCIAL PLANS.

He Will Appear Tomorrow With One General Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Secretary Gage will appear before the house committee on banking and currency tomorrow and submit to them in the form of a general bill his recommendations recently made to congress.

The determination of Secretary Gage to appear and submit one general financial bill instead of a number of separate bills, brought out many expressions of satisfaction. It had the effect of clearing up a situation which was becoming strained, and gave promise of an early report to congress on financial bills. The understanding was reached on a result of a visit to the capitol of the solicitor of the treasury, Mr. Connell, representing Mr. Gage. He talked with a number of the other Republican leaders and, it is understood, was advised by Mr. Dingley and others that it would be desirable to embrace financial subjects in one general bill. Later, the solicitor met Chairman Walker and other members of the committee on banking and currency and a general conference was held as to what should be done.

It was made known that Mr. Gage preferred to let the subject go over until after the holiday recess. The committee urged, however, that it desired to take the Gage bill and also that submitted by the monetary conference under consideration during the holidays in order to be in a position to report progress when the house reconvened after the recess. It was decided, therefore, that Mr. Gage should submit his measure tomorrow and appear in person to explain and argue its merits and answer questions from the committee. It was also made clear that the secretary would cover all his proposals in one general bill, instead of cutting the subject up.

This arrangement gave general satisfaction and having accomplished this much the members of the committee canvassed the course they would take as to making an immediate report to the house on the currency question. It was decided that the first thing to be done was to report a bill embodying the three features recommended by the president, viz: A reduction of the tax on circulation to one-half of 1 per cent; the issuance of circulation up to the par value of bonds deposited, and the establishment of small banks in rural communities.

While these will be embodied in the Gage plan, yet as they were specially advised in the president's message, it was felt to be advisable to give the house the opportunity of acting on them at once without waiting for the report on the Gage bill. For these reasons the full committee will be asked to report on the president's plan at once. The draft of a bill has been prepared by Mr. Brosius (Pa.) and this was given to the solicitor of the treasury, who is to return it in time for action by the committee with such suggestions as the treasury authorities may wish to make. As to the comprehensive Gage bill, this and the monetary conference bill will be gone over with care during the holidays, and as a result of the bitter feeling created, members of the banking and currency committee say there is no further doubt that action will be reported to the house soon after the holidays.

EVIDENCE AGAINST ZANOLI.

Examination Shows His Fourth Wife Didn't Die of Fever.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Charles Zanoli, the barber who has been held on suspicion of causing the deaths of some of the many people on whose lives he obtained insurance, has been arraigned in police court on the charge of homicide in causing the death of Jennie Suhmer, his fourth and last wife, by the use of poison or some other means. The charge was based upon the result of the preliminary examination upon the body of Jennie Suhmer, which was exhumed Monday. The death certificate of that woman gave typhoid fever as the cause. The cursory investigation made by the experts proved that typhoid fever was not the direct cause of death.

Zanoli has already pleaded guilty to the charge of defrauding an insurance company, but has positively denied that he was in any way responsible for the deaths of his four wives and the other persons whose insurance he obtained.

Zanoli was held without bail on the charge of homicide. He will be examined on Saturday next.

Throughout the proceedings Zanoli appeared perfectly calm.

CHINA IS INDIFFERENT.

An Explorer So Reports Regarding Germany's Occupation.

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—Explorer William has received in audience Herr Von Brandt, a former German minister to China. The volunteer corps which is going to China exceeds 1,200 men in number. They have been drawn equally from all the army corps.

Herr Eugene S. Wolf, the well-known German explorer, cables to The Tageblatt from Shanghai saying that China is wholly indifferent to the seizure of Kiao-Chow bay.

The German merchants in China and Japan insist upon the establishment of a fortnightly steamship line between Germany and East Asia.

Spain Still After a Cruiser.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Spanish government, it is again announced, is negotiating with the Armstrongs, this time for a cruiser of 4,300 tons, said to be worth £300,000, built for Japan, but which Japan does not want. The vessel is said to be practically ready for sea.

Daniel Practically Re-Elected.

RICHMOND, Dec. 15.—In the voting in the general assembly for United States senator Hon. John W. Daniel practically received the unanimous vote of both houses, the election being a mere matter of form.

Tennyson's Slip.

Lord Tennyson is in his "Life" (volume 2, page 14) reported to have said: "I never put two s's together in any verse of mine. My line is not, as often quoted:

"And freedom broadens slowly down, but:

"And freedom slowly broadens down."

On reading this I opened my Tennyson casually, and the first piece I saw was "Sir Launcelot and Queen Guinevere," which contains four instances of the double s—namely:

Sometimes the linnets piped his song.
She seemed a part of joyous spring.
As she fled.
As she swayed.

The next piece is "The Farewell," which has the line:

No more by thee my steps shall be.

The next piece is "The Beggar Maid," which has the consecutive lines:

As shines the moon in clouded skies,
She in her poor attire was seen.

Thinking that perhaps Lord Tennyson referred to his blank verse, I turned to the "Dedication of the Idylls," in which I find these two lines:

Or how should England, dreaming of his sons, and

Till God's love set thee at his side again.

Lord Tennyson must, I think, have been misreported.—London Spectator.

Marriage In England.

Englishmen now, it is said, are emulating the French in the absolute disinclination to marry. When they do decide to take this important step, they now frequently insist upon that dot which is part of the French idea of a successful and convenient marriage. The real fact of the matter is that the ordinary modern Englishman has no desire to disturb his bachelor estate. If he has no title, no special wealth, no great historic name to hand down to posterity, single blessedness is good enough for him. This state of mind is attributed by many to the growing independence of women. Possibly this is true, probably it is not. Mercenary spirits boldly assert that marriages in England will, on the whole, never be successful until women bring dots to their husbands, since gold inspires respect if not love. Marriage on a strictly business basis is evidently the future for all English women to look forward to.—San Francisco Argonaut.

His Own Uncle.

A few days ago a young medical student came suddenly face to face with a dear, kind, old, fatherly looking gentleman of highly respectable appearance.

They both stood transfixed. The same idea flashed across both of them.

"Your face is familiar to me—very familiar, but I can't remember where we have met so often."

However, the friendly impulse was carried out. They shook hands warmly, partook of a friendly glass and departed, still ignorant of each other's name and occupation.

But the young man was determined to solve the problem, and he seized on a waiter.

"Who is that distinguished stranger with the long white hair?"

And the waiter whispered slowly:

"If you please, sir, that's the pawnbroker."—London Answers.

Refreshing.

Mistress (to unsophisticated maid from the country)—I'm sadly afraid I shall have to dismiss you, Eliza—your untidy ways, and then the things you break!

Unsophisticated Maid—Oh, if you please, mum, don't send me away yet. My mother says if I stay here and learn how to do things I can then go to a real good place in some high family.—Moonshine.

Robberies During the Funeral.

CANTON, Dec. 15.—During the progress of the funeral of Mrs. McKinley several robberies occurred. The home of Ervin Marshall was entered and a large quantity of jewelry was secured. J. D. Kramer's tailoring establishment, opposite the church, was looted of diamonds, watches and other jewelry. The police arrested a man who just got out of the workhouse, and part of the missing articles were recovered. A number of pockets were also picked of valuables.

Broad Move for Christianity.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—A movement is on foot among the local ministers of all denominations to organize an evangelistic alliance for Pittsburgh and Allegheny. A call has been issued for a general meeting to be held Monday afternoon. The plan is to have every family in the city visited every three months in the interest of christianity.

Useful Adjunct.

"I always like to have at least one boarder who is a little slow about paying," Mrs. Hashcroft admitted to her dearest friend. "A man of that kind, especially a young man, is always so handy to use up all the chicken necks, the cold biscuits and so on."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Washington and Jefferson College Glee and Instrumental club—Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo clubs—will again visit us as soon after Santa Claus has made his visit as possible, namely: Monday evening, the 27th. Large pictures of all the college clubs, including their baseball, track, athletic and famous football teams, who recently won the championship of Western Pennsylvania.

HELD A UNION MEETING

Two Presbyteries Came Together In Steubenville.

AN ECHO OF THE SWAN CASE

It Was Heard In the Presbyterian Meeting Before Adjournment—Other Business of the Sessions—Where They Will Meet the Next Time.

Steubenville has this week been entertaining the presbyteries of the Presbyterian churches.

Steubenville presbytery was opened by a sermon by the retiring moderator, Doctor McKinley. It was followed by communion. Rev. R. T. Price, of Scio, presided.

Tuesday morning, after some routine business, Doctor Eagleson was granted the privilege of laboring as an evangelist.

In regard to the claim of Doctor Forbes for nearly $70, due as salary from Bloomfield church, the presbytery decided that the church had settled with the pastor.

At 11 o'clock a joint meeting of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian presbyteries was held. The two moderators made some very appropriate introductory remarks. Brief speeches interspersed with singing of psalms and prayers were made by Doctor Taggart, Doctor Swaney, Revs. H. W. Lowry, N. K. Crowe, Thomas Hanna, Joseph C. Kreusch, W. C. Dunn, W. F. Weir, A. G. Eagleson and J. M. Jamieson.

At the suggestion of Rev. Dr. Eagleson a resolution was adopted recommending that at the next meeting of these two bodies the ministers recite memoriter the Shorter Catechism, the moderators to ask the questions without the book.

Doctor Jamieson offered the following: Resolved, That the conference now rise and report to our respective presbyteries that the conference was very fraternal, and it is hoped, shall be conducive to our efficiency in the Lord's work and kindly regards for each other.

Reverend Eaton, of Carrollton, who had been elected moderator of the Presbyterian body, presided at the meeting last night, and Doctor Ewing, of India, delivered a powerful lecture. Much work was done in the afternoon, the principal part of which empowered the clerk and permanent clerk to select the next place of meeting, and the report of the committee on the Swan case. The report was signed by C. J. Hunter, Henry Webb and R. G. Richards. It is as follows:

"We disapprove of the public censure of the presbytery of Steubenville as made from the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, East Liverpool, on Sabbath, Sept. 19, 1897, and ask if it is proper to spread on the minutes of the church records of such censure.

"We find no statement recorded of the action of Steubenville presbytery, done at the Second Presbyterian church, East Liverpool, on April 21, 1897, handing back the case of James L. Swan, to be tried 'de novo' by the session of the First Presbyterian church, East Liverpool.

"We find no account of the final disposal of the above James L. Swan by the presbytery of Steubenville, except in the statement, as above referred to, censuring the Steubenville presbytery for alleged unfairness in not granting a public trial of the above case."

The report was adopted, and presbytery adjourned.

U. P. Presbytery.

The attendance of ministers and elders at the United Presbyterian meeting was about 30. Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Calcutta, who was appointed to preach the opening sermon, was absent. Dr. Jamieson, of Hopedale, opened the presbytery with prayer. Rev. J. R. Greene, of East Liverpool, the moderator, conducted devotional exercises. Rev. J. C. Berrien was invited to a seat in the body. Presbytery then went into a conference, Rev. J. G. Atcheson presiding and conducting devotions. Dr. J. C. Taggart, of East Liverpool, read a most able paper on "The Church of the future—its Theology." The evening session closed with prayer by Rev. J. C. Berrien.

Tuesday morning Rev. Barrackman, of Salineville, conducted the devotional exercises. Rev. W. C. Dunn's resignation from Scroggsfield church was accepted. Rev. J. W. Best was dismissed and certified to the presbytery of Northwestern Iowa. Dr. Floyd was given the floor to present the home department work of the Sunday school.

The next meeting will be held in Wellsville.

—Miss Ida Bristol returned to her home in Warren today after a long visit in this city.

FEELS FOR EAST LIVERPOOL

If the Apostle of Self Glorification Is to Continue His Money Making Here—An Example of What He Thinks of Those Who Do Not Agree With Him.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—We are having prosperity in East Palestine, thanks to the grand old Republican party, a party which has ever looked after the best interests of the masses, at least from an industrial standpoint. We have lately been blessed (?) with a visit from an individual calling himself "Holiness Taylor." According to his side of the story he is the quintessence of holiness and purity, and every one who does not believe in his especial doctrine is straight on the road to hades. The fellow is not modest, by any means, but blows his bugle vehemently. He boasts that his Christianity "is all wool and a yard wide," and that his "wool" can be found hanging to the bushes all over the land, from Maine to Colorado. I understand that he has left here and that he may thrust his presence upon East Liverpool. Such being the case, I feel like saying: "Blessed is East Palestine and woe unto East Liverpool," for, in my estimation, the fellow is a loud-mouthed, blatant humbug, working the racket he does simply on account of it being an easy way to make a living. On one occasion I had the misfortune to attend a meeting where the fellow was speaking. At the conclusion of his harangue, called a sermon, he said:

"All who are believers in our doctrine of holiness and sanctification; those who are free from sin and temptation; those who are living a life of absolute consecration, will please stand up."

Quite a number arose. But there were a number of Christian men and women who did not; men and women who knew that their life was a constant battle against the powers of sin and darkness; men and women who conquered the arch enemy of mankind only after a stern struggle, through him who hath loved us and given himself for us; men and women who evidence their Christianity by their every day walk and conversation; who pay their honest debts and are in love and sympathy with their neighbors, and who do not sit in judgment upon their neighbors, believing that to be the province of God alone, and this blatant fellow, in the most brutal manner, and with a voice charged with venom and vindictiveness, shouted out:

"That's right, sit there and go to hell!"

I would simply ask this fellow if he will dare assert that he is aiming to pattern after the example of the meek and lowly Nazarene. LISTENER.

TAKEN HOME.

Janitor Broone Will Be Cared For by His Parents.

Irwin Broone, janitor of the First Presbyterian church, who has been seriously ill at his home in Drury lane, was taken to the home of his parents at Cameron, O., where he will receive the best of attention until he has recovered. He was accompanied by his nurse, Harry Vincent.

On the River.

Heavy rains were general in the upper valleys Monday night and yesterday, and it is thought a coal boat stage will be reached before long. Many tow boats are on their way up, and although the southern coal markets are well supplied, there is still a large amount in the upper pools to be sent south.

The marks at the wharf today registered 9 feet and rising.

The Iron Age passed this port in May for New Orleans and is now on its way up. It will pass this place tomorrow.

Passed up, Virginia; down, Kanawha.

Business Is Better.

This morning 45 baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny. This is the largest shipment of ware in this manner since the first part of November when 55 baskets were one day shipped.

The early train, on which the ware was shipped, was delayed five minutes.

Look After Market Street.

Commissioner Finley should direct his attention for a short time to the lower part of Market street. The mud is very deep. The street has been in bad condition for several months.

The Citizen's National bank, with headquarters on Fourth street, at the old postoffice, is now ready for business.

It Is Ridiculous

For any man to claim to make money by selling at a loss. It's simple to say it, and simple to swallow it. If the farmer raised only grain for grain what he planted, he would starve. If the merchant sells his goods dollar for dollar at the price he bought them, he is out in time, labor and expenses.

WE MUST LIVE.

And we live by our profits, but we don't prey on the public. Our price is actually lower than the much bragged up "below cost" of others. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 15.

BUSINESS men throughout the country will commend the ways and means committee of congress for its determination to allow the Dingley bill to stand. It simply means that the measure and business will be given an honest trial.

REPUBLICANS should not lose sight of the fact that they should correct the evils within the party. Let them at the primaries select the right men for office, and then go before the people asking the support of all who favor good government.

CONGRESS is already deep in its work showing the wisdom of being prepared before the session really opens. If the, statesmen can only be convinced of the necessity of hastening the completion of that work perhaps the country would feel better.

THE emperor of Germany should have little to say of divinely appointed sovereigns until he ceases this nasty habit of bulldozing every little two by twice power not in position to offer anything in the way of resistance. There seems more of devilish ingenuity than divine inspiration in his course.

WE should all hope that the next speaker of the Ohio house will be a strong man with sufficient power to control the gentlemen before him. When we remember that among other legislators there will be one with a bill providing for the abolition of capital punishment, it can be readily seen that a strong man is needed in the speaker's chair.

ANY opposition that may develop to the passage of a law restricting immigration will not represent the feeling of the average American. While we all want more people on this side of the water, and are anxiously awaiting the time when the government of Uncle Sam will protect hundreds of millions, we do not desire any part of those millions to be the ignorantly vicious and criminal classes that other nations will not have.

ANOTHER GOOD MOVE.
Attorney General Monnett has rendered an opinion which will doubtless do Ohio a great deal of good. He believes the Bell Telephone company should pay taxes on the instruments in use as do other corporations and individuals on real property. Since the concern does business in this state to the amount of $5,833,000 a year, it seems nothing but plain justice that the company should pay something for the privileges it enjoys with such profitable results. The movement is but an extension of the idea put forward by Governor Bushnell—that of making foreign corporations do something toward relieving the burden of taxation in Ohio.

GOOD ROADS.
The members of the legislature who desire to endear themselves to the people can make much headway by working in the direction of better roads. The question needs no argument. Any man who will go anywhere in Ohio at this season can find ample proof in support of the movement if he but keeps his eyes open. Better roads are needed for a score of good reasons, and it is only a matter of time until we have them, but we might save ourselves a vast deal of annoyance if we could have them now. They will not cost any less 20 years from now. A sensible measure providing for the construction and maintenance of a well planned system of highways would certainly pass both branches of the legislature with little opposition. Why then does not some statesman immortalize himself and do as the people desire?

MORE FROM MR. TAYLOR

Baptists and Methodists Under His Ban.

SOME VERY STONG EXPRESSIONS

Were Used to Show His Contempt For the Methodist Protestant Ministers Who Forced Him to Leave the Conference. All the News of Wellsville.

Holiness Taylor talked last night to a large audience in spite of the rain, and his address was as usual more forcible, than polished.

"The Baptists," he said, "get along very well in this part of the country because it is close to the river, but you know they die when they get a little farther inland. I believe miracles could be performed in this day only people pay more attention to their bodies than to their souls. Persecution is good for Christians. It sifts them and brings out their sweetest qualities. But do not mind it. Put on a hide like a rhinoceros, and let them shoot. My hide is sticking full of arrows. Learn to forgive. Some of the early Christians were lashed until their backs looked like a railroad map of Massachusetts. Give up tobacco if you are properly converted."

"A Methodist Protestant preacher here five years ago sat with his feet on the fence and squirted amber into the middle of the street. He belonged to the crowd that expelled me from conference. Stop talking about popes and papacy, the M. P. church has plenty of two cent spider legged popes in it. The church was formed to protest against the sins in the old Methodist Episcopal church. The whole rotten gang started there. Daniel was cast in the lions' den to feed them. I have been feeding lions for 20 years, and I am the healthiest looking Daniel you ever saw. In fact I don't feel good unless 20 or 30 preachers are chewing at me. When the Methodist preachers turned me out at Liverpool I was glad to wipe the dust off my feet and leave the rotten crowd. Only three animals chew tobacco—the Australian goat, certain two-legged animals and the worm that feeds on its leaves. I fight tobacco because it means spiritual death. Get a clean mouth first; your heart is two feet below."

The sermon caused much comment today.

Married Last Evening.
Reverend Campbell, of the Calcutta U. P. church, and the brother of Doctor Campbell, was married last night, the bride being Miss Anna McClelland, of Scio, at whose home the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. W. Granahan, of Allegheny. They will reside in Calcutta.

COUNCIL AND SHRADER

Promises Something Interesting In the Future.

IT'S ALL ABOUT A BIG BILL

The Salary Ordinances Were Introduced, and Street Paving Was Discussed--It Was a Long Session With Plenty of Business.

Council held a very lengthy session last evening and transacted a great deal of business.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock, with all members present except Messrs. Olnhausen and Horwell.

The minutes were read and approved, and a resolution to improve Franklin street from Sixth street to the Horn switch, by paving the sidewalks and grading the roadway, was placed on its third reading. Doctor Marshall remarked that if the people of Eighth street survived this winter it was probable they would want the street paved next year, and moved that the resolution be amended so that the paving of the street would be included. The resolution as amended passed unanimously.

An ordinance to improve Pine street from Ravine street to Thompson avenue was placed on its third reading. Mr. Stewart said it would be impossible to do the work this year, but President Peach stated that while it was the wrong time to commence the work there had been two or three cases of sickness in that vicinity on account of the hole in the street, and it was a question whether the health of the people should be jeopardized by laying it over until spring. Mr. Marshall said as a sanitary measure it should be done at once. The ordinance was then passed.

Mr. Marshall asked what had become of the ordinance condemning the right of way for Pennsylvania avenue, and Solicitor Grosshans replied that service had been made upon all the parties who lived in the city and it would be necessary to advertise to get service upon the rest. Upon motion of Mr. Marshall the necessary notice was ordered published at once.

The Edwin M. Knowles company were granted permission to occupy the south 55 feet of First street for a period of 92 years, for a consideration of $5 per year.

The mayor collected $115 in fines and licenses during the month of November, and the fire department had 31 police calls, made 37 arrests and had five ambulance calls.

The pay ordinance was next, and a long discussion followed its appearance. The bill of A. J. Boyce for $425 for plates had been signed by Messrs. Stewart and Cain, of claims committee, and Mr. George was asked to explain where the plates went. He stated that part of the plates were used in Cook street, and the expense should be collected from the street railway company and the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad. The others were used in various parts of the city. He thought it was a question whether the street railway would pay their share, as an estimate had been furnished them sometime ago, but they had paid no attention to it.

Mr. Olnhausen said a committee should take a tour and see whether the plates had been used. President Peach said he thought it was time the street railway paid the city what they owed, amounting to $1,600 or $1,700, and advised that immediate action be taken.

Mr. Stewart remarked that this had nothing to do with the bill of A. J. Boyce and the pay roll was passed.

Mr. Marshall moved the solicitor notify the street railway company of the amount due, and if it was not paid in 10 days proceedings to annul their franchise should be commenced.

Mr. Olnhausen thought it was poor policy, as the money should be collected first.

The solicitor called attention to the fact that the ordinance provided that the engineer should furnish the company with the bill.

Mr. Marshall remarked that this had been done, and said: "There is no use wasting time. Let us settle on that estimate and do business. We should not let John Shrader or anybody else make fools or tools of us."

Solicitor Grosshans said he hardly knew how the city could get a prior lien on the mortgage bonded indebtedness of the road, and the only recourse was a civil action against them if their bond was large enough.

The motion was carried unanimously, and President Peach said: "I just want to impress on the solicitor that he use every effort to collect the bill before the ordinance is prepared, as $2,000 is more to us than annulling their franchise."

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The solicitor suggested a suit, but Mr. Marshall said they wanted no suits, and if the $2,000 was lost it was lost, and the mistake was made in not collecting it before the work was commenced.

The estimates on the paving of College street and Lincoln avenue showed a total cost of $3,975.73, and there was still due Contractor Rinehart $1,975.73. The estimates on Cook and Jefferson showed $3,648.31, and there was still due Contractor Ryan $1,149.51. A bill of $56.20 for extra work by Contractor Rinehart started a discussion which lasted fully 20 minutes, and ended by paying the bills and referring the one for extra work to the street committee. The plumbers' ordinance was discussed a short time, and a resolution was passed to improve Oak street from Bradshaw avenue to Minerva street. The assessment ordinance to pay for the Elm street sewer was passed, and a resolution to improve Minerva street carried.

The ordinance to annex contiguous territory was referred to the ordinance committee after Mr. Marshall had made a request that Neville institute be left in the township.

The ordinance paying the mayor a salary was placed on its first reading. Mr. Marshall said the ordinance denied the mayor the right of certain fees which he was allowed by state law.

Solicitor Grosshans explained that it was his intention when the ordinance was written to have it discussed.

Mr. Marshall moved the clerk furnish each member with a copy and said: "It is simply a question whether you make the good citizens pay for the crimes or the law breakers pay it. Under salary the good citizens pay it. The fee system is bad, but whether it is worse than this is another question."

President Peach remarked that there would come a time to discuss the ordinance, and it went to the police committee.

The ordinance creating the office of chief of police went to the police committee.

The water works trustees were ordered to move a fire plug at the power house and put in a new one in Helana. The $1,000 in the sewer fund was turned over to the sewer commissioners, and Mr. Cain called attention to a light at the Dresden pottery which the residents wish to have moved.

President Peach said it was time that bonds were issued to pay for the recent improvements and Clerk Hanley was instructed to purchase hat racks for the council chamber. Engineer George was instructed to survey the Broadway wharf.

Steadily Growing.

Ceramic Rebekah lodge, No. 286, I. O. O. F., at its meeting last night initiated ten new members, and, from appearance, the membership will still increase. This has been a very prosperous year for the lodge in every way, and they are looking forward to the honor of entertaining the Ohio assembly of Rebekahs here in 1899.

Fireman Terrence Better.

Fireman Terrence, who has been ill for some days at his home in Church alley suffering from tonsillitis, is much improved. This morning the physician had the fever well in hand, and with care the fireman is expected to be out next week.

The Japs.

The Oriental Specialty company will appear at the Grand this evening in one of the best programs ever seen in the city. The specialties are first class, and the company have everywhere been greeted by crowded houses.

The Lecture.

Edward H. Frey lectured at the Young Men's Christian association, last night. The entertainment was undoubtedly among the best ever conducted by the association, and was enjoyed by a large audience.

TID BITS.

Artful Dodger Discourseth on Vanities and Vexations.

How vain hath been all the efforts of the blue coat who had aspirations for the office of City Marshal? The new dispensation will select whom the authors thereof believe to be the best fitted for the place. The fellow who failed to make arrests, for fear of losing votes in the spring time, hath counted without his host. "Vanity, vanity; all is vanity and vexation of spirit."

"He who boasteth that he standeth, let him take heed, else he falleth." Dago. Respectfully referred to the individual or individuals who occupy the same pedestal as did the Pharisee of biblical fame, he who thanked God that he was not as other men.

There are indications that the position or office of mayor of East Liverpool will be made one of honor, with sufficient salary attached thereto to enable the incumbent to earn an honest living. The next move will be to place an honorable citizen in the position, a man who will reflect credit upon our prosperous little city.

Prayer is a grand feature and a wonderful power, when properly used and applied. But the man who prays that the Lord will send him potatoes, and then refuses to dig them from Mother Earth, will go without potatoes all his natural life, cursed with the disease known as slothful, or every day laziness.

"Option. The scholar at the head of the class will please spell the word." O-p-t-i-o-n. "That's right; hit her the first time. Now, me boy, define the word."

"Well, teacher, I'm a little rusty on definitions, but I'll do my level best. I've been watching so-called real estate deals lately in East Liverpool, and the contemplated building of potteries, glass houses, tin mills, etc., and I will define a man who has "options" as a fellow who has an awful lot of influence and gall and mighty little cash; a fellow who buys up whole townships of desirable land, pays about TEN DOLLARS for the same, and then heralds himself as the owner of Ohio and West Virginia, with a patent right on the waters of the Ohio river."

"Right you are, young fellow; you've hit the nail on the head. You may be short on definitions as laid down on the book; but you're a keen observer and a good judge of the average real estate transaction in this neck of woods."

DODGER."

TO THE PUBLIC.

Will You Please Report to General Lyon Post?

Citizens of East Liverpool and vicinity, you will confer a great favor on the comrades of General Lyon post, No. 44, G. A. R., if you will help the memorial committee by sending them information respecting the names of comrades who have answered the last roll call, and are entitled to a place on the roll at Memorial Hall. You can address Quartermaster McCain, chairman of the committee, or any comrade of the post, verbally or by letter. Give name, regiment and company. Read carefully the following, showing those who are entitled to place:

First--The names of deceased soldiers who were citizens of Liverpool township when enlisted, and who were honorably discharged.

Second--The names of deceased honorably discharged soldiers buried in Liverpool township.

Third--The names of all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who, having enlisted outside of Liverpool township, and afterwards being citizens of Liverpool township, and having died therein, were buried elsewhere.

A Pleasant Prospect.

A prominent member of the board of health, when asked today when the board would hold another meeting, said: "I have been waiting to go to a meeting since last June, and I am not going to make any preparations to go to another meeting until next June."

Failed to Pay.

The water works force today shut off a number of consumers who had failed to pay their water rent.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Colonel Hill was in Lisbon on business.

William Erlanger was a Pittsburg visitor today.

John Gilson, of Salineville, was in the city yesterday on business. He was the guest of Arthur Savage, in Third street.

WAS READY FOR DEATH

But Conductor Jordan Would Not Allow It.

TWO ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE

The Individual Did His Best to Throw Himself Under the Pony While It Was at Work on the Horn Switch--Will Try Again.

One resident of this place is alive this afternoon because Conductor Jordan, who has charge of the engine which does the switching in the local yards, would not allow him to die.

The man is a well known character whose name has often appeared on the blotter at city hall. He said nothing to anyone of his intention, but when the pony was at work on the Horn switch he threw himself on the track. The conductor saw the action and caught the man by the coat and drew him away. Soon afterward the fellow made another attempt, and was again saved by the conductor.

He declared he was ready to die and did not thank anyone for saving him.

Heavy Freight Traffic.

The business in the freight department of Cleveland and Pittsburg road is at its height, and the reports sent to the head office each day from this place show that there is a very small decrease over the booming days of September and October.

Regular freight trains are run in sections and the drays that passed through the city this morning were among the largest trains ever run. One train had 89 cars.

Liked the New Preacher.

The service in St. Stephen's church last evening was largely attended, and the sermon by the Reverend Weary, of Huron, was well thought of by those present.

Reverend Weary left for his home this morning, and it is thought that arrangements can be made to have him preach his first sermon as rector of the parish in this city one week from next Sunday.

Good Trade In Trees.

It was said yesterday by a man who deals in Christmas trees that more trees would be sold this year than for five years. It is known that one man has secured an order for 400 trees, and as many more as he is able to get. The prices this year will be from 25 cents to one dollar.

Shipments Are Brisk.

Yesterday was a brisk day at the freight depot and a large amount of business was handled.

Shipments have been more brisk this week than for some time, and every night the pony has had occasion to work late. Last evening it was 9:30 o'clock when the crew was ready to leave for the shops.

It Will Be Costly.

It is expected that by next week the building of the large water tank at the light plant will be commenced.

The tank will be built on a lot near the east side of the building, and will have a capacity of 1,000 gallons. When the work is completed the pump will be erected over the well. The entire work will cost in the neighborhood of $500.

Denied a Report.

The report circulated yesterday to the effect that William Erlanger intended to purchase the Croxall property at the corner of Washington and Fifth streets, was without foundation. The report was denied by Mr. Erlanger last evening.

Lost Pocketbooks.

There has been an epidemic of lost pocketbooks in the city recently. Several were missed Saturday night, and at least one yesterday. As only a few of them have been found there is a suspicion that some smart thief and not simple chance is responsible.

Troubles of Husband and Child.

Mrs. J. E. Elwell, West End, child was ailing, tried U-No Worm Lozenges, passed stomach and seat worms; also her husband had no appetite, but after taking U-No Tonic, appetite good. *

Married by Professor Reed.

Mr. William Evans and Miss Eva May Myers were married last evening by Prof. O. S. Reed. They are residents of this city and will at once go to house-keeping.

The Dover Castle.

DOVER, England, Dec. 15.—A small fire has occurred in Dover castle.

DOINGS IN EUROPE.

Epitomized Notes on Events Reflecting Life From Across the Atlantic.

An examination of the tomb of J. an Jacques Rousseau, in the ile des Pen- pliers, which has recently taken place, showed the grave to be untenanted, no trace of the body having been found beneath the monument. In the presence of this disappointment three hypotheses present themselves. Some hold that the body was hidden elsewhere on the island. Others insist that the philosopher's body was taken to Paris in 1794 and still rests in the sarcophagus which lies beneath the dome of the Pantheon. The minister of public instruction has given his consent to the opening of this sarcophagus. Should it be found empty, the conviction will obtain that Rousseau's bones were disinterred by fanatics soon after his death and scattered.

William Tell has dwindled into a myth. Rousseau's tomb, which has been the bourne of so many pilgrimages during the last 100 years, has now been discovered to be untenanted, as stated above, and now Bonivard, the "Prisoner of Chillon" so beautifully sung of by Lord Byron, is shown to be something very much akin to a fraud. Visitors to the old castle of Chillon, on the lake of Geneva, have long gazed with reverent eyes on the track worn in the stone pavement around the pillar to which the captive was chained during his long incarceration. This year the famous footprints mysteriously disappeared. An inquiry was made in the cantonal legislature as to what had become of them. Thereupon M. Vecurat, councillor of state, rose and unblushingly explained that they had never existed at all, but were artificially manufactured to satisfy the demands of a sentimental public. This year the usual repairs were done so late that there was no time to renew this venerable sham.

A story is in circulation at the court of The Hague concerning the young queen of Holland which is destined to illustrate that she fully shares the pronounced aversion of her subjects for Germany and prefers in every particular the French. It seems that on the last occasion when she met Emperor William she insisted on responding in French to the remarks which he addressed to her in German, and on his asking her why she did not speak German she tartly replied that it was merely because she preferred French.

Germany's young crown prince has recently furnished another illustration of his dreadful precocity, and bids fair in time to develop into as all embracing a genius as his imperial father. Although but 15 years of age, he has taken to writing poems, which are being lauded in the German press as something quite extraordinary in their delicacy of sentiment and knowledge of meter. Fortunately the person to whom all his verses have until now been addressed is his mother, whose hair has been whitened by anxiety in connection with her husband to such a degree that in spite of her being considerably under 40 years of age it is as silvery as that of her mother-in-law, the Empress Frederick, and of her grandmother, Queen Victoria.

It is only now that the true circumstances which led to the murder of the late shah of Persia have become known through the revelation of an Austrian diplomat who represented his country in Teheran at the time of the murder, but who is now on the retired list. It seems that the murder had nothing to do either with religious fanaticism or with revenge for the persecution to which the Babbist sect had been subjected in Persia, but that it was a mere case of private and personal vengeance. Years ago the murderer, then a merchant, had sold some valuable articles to the third son of the late shah, who was minister of war at the time. On demanding his money he was thrown into prison, kept there seven years, his pretty young wife, to whom he was passionately attached, being meanwhile forcibly appropriated by the prince. After his release he fled to Constantinople, where he made the acquaintance of the Afghan sheik Diemal-ed Din, who recently died in the sultan's palace. He obtained from him letters of introduction to personages in Persia hostile to the shah, returned in disguise and killed the king of kings, crying as he fired, "One must fell the tree that bears bad fruit," thus making the father responsible for the wrong deeds of his son.

With regard to the crusade that has been in progress in England for some time past in favor of the opening of museums and similar public institutions to the people on Sunday, that being to all intents and purposes the only day in the week which the laboring classes have at their disposal for visiting and "taking in" anything of the kind, its promoters have just secured two important recruits to the cause in the persons of the Dukes of Westminster and of Wellington. These two peers have not confined their adhesion to the propaganda to any mere expression of sympathy, but have publicly announced that henceforth and until further notice their London mansions, or rather palaces—that is to say, the picture galleries, ballrooms, banqueting halls, in one word all the state apartments—will be thrown open to the public from 1 to 5 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.—New York Tribune.

WEYLER NOW IN MADRID.

Adherents Carried Him on Their Shoulders—Called on Queen Today.

MADRID, Dec. 13.—Lieutenant General Weyler has arrived here. He was received at the railway platform by General Azcarraga, former premier; General Borrero, former commander of the Sixth Army corps, and by a number of Republicans, Carlists, Conservatives and Robelidoists.

As he alighted from the train they cheered him and then carried him shoulder high to the entrance of the railway station, where he took a carriage and was rapidly driven off. There was no further incident, the public appearing indifferent.

The partisans of General Weyler pretend that a crowd of 8,000 people tendered him an ovation with shouts of "long live Weyler. Death to the yankies" and the like. He was received by the queen regent today.

El Correo Espanol says that the Carlists have abandoned their projected demonstration against President McKinley's message to congress, as they have not been able to agree on the subject.

General Weyler in the course of an interview said he knew that the Canovas cabinet in August last gave the Washington government to understand that it was the nation's will to pursue his (Weyler's) policy in Cuba until the rebellion should be suppressed, without ever consenting to American interference. He failed to understand how the United States, silent before the declarations of Canovas, now adopted in President McKinley's message a "tone insulting to Spain and the Spanish army."

He believed, he declared, that the government should be compelled to publish the Canovas note as a satisfaction to the army and also to protest by all means in its power against President McKinley's message to congress.

To his personal knowledge, he asserted, the generals residing in Madrid felt keenly on this point, while he was confident that all the conservative element of the country would combine to avert the ruin and dishonor of the nation.

MUST CLEAN THE JAIL

Councilman Olnhausen Has an Idea.

HE INSPECTED THE PLACE

finding it pretty bad he made some suggestions—Steam Heat Would Cost a Little Money, but It Would Cut Down the City's Gas Bills.

At the next meeting of council Mr. Olnhausen will ask that a resolution be passed authorizing the renovating and remodeling of the city jail.

Yesterday afternoon he and Chief Johnson inspected that part of city hall and many changes were proposed. After the trip Mr. Olnhausen said:

"That is the first time I was ever inside of the jail, and that the various councils have allowed it to remain in the condition it is so long is a conundrum to me. I want to see the sanitary condition improved, and more ventilation would not be out of place. Then the place needs a good cleaning. I understand the floors are cleaned thoroughly at times, but arrangements should be made to have it cleaned at least once a week. I would like also to see the entire building heated with steam. This will do away with the large gas bills the city is compelled to pay. A large heater could be bought at a reasonable figure and placed in the cellar, a boiler could be annexed and pipes run through the various rooms. This would cause a little expenditure of money at the start, but I am satisfied the city would save many dollars in the long run."

PUDD'N'HEAD WILSON.

A Splendid Production by a Splendid Company.

Edwin F. Mayo and a good company presented "Pudd'n'head Wilson," at the Grand last night. The performance was one of the most satisfactory ever witnessed in the city.

Mayo as Pudd'n'head, the central figure, is the self-possessed genius the author intended when he wrote the story, and the other parts are well taken. Entertaining and humorous, the play is filled with sufficient of the sterner side of life to make it intensely interesting.

The occasion was the annual benefit of the stage hands, and the opera house was in consequence tastefully decorated in evergreens and flowers, while the electrical effects were pretty. A glimpse of life as it is behind the scenes was given by the attaches and loudly applauded. The music of Professor Nowling's orchestra was a feature of the evening.

IMPORTANT REPORTS.

Trades Council Will Consider Them Tonight.

The regular meeting of Trades council tonight will be important because a number of reports are to be considered.

Chief among them is that of the delegates who attended the Columbus convention. The meeting excited much interest here and the members of the council are anxious to know the details.

Another matter of considerable moment is a report from the grievance committee who have been considering an unusual case.

TWO INCHES AN HOUR.

That is the Last Report From Muddy Huston Road.

"How is Huston road this morning?" asked the NEWS REVIEW of a bespattered hill top resident as he came in to town.

A walk was laid this morning from Oak street to Avondale street by an enterprising resident who objected to using a boat.

An electric crane manufactured in Alliance passed through the city this morning on its way east. Three cars were required for its transportation.

Rev. Dr. Mueller, a prominent Methodist divine of Cleveland who is noted as a pulpit orator, will preach at the First M. E. church of this city one week from next Sunday.

The committee having in charge the spiritual work of the Epworth league of the First M. E. church, will hold a meeting Saturday evening to consider plans for the coming year.

The case against Harrison Headley for not sending his daughter to school has been withdrawn by Truant Officer Beardmore, as it was ascertained that the child was over 15 years of age.

Commissioner Finley is on the war-path, and is devoting this afternoon in an endeavor to ascertain who the parties are who are violating the ordinance against throwing paper in the streets. He is determined the practice shall cease.

The holiday money order business at the postoffice as yet does not show any material increase over a regular day's business. Great Britain will catch the bulk of the foreign business from this office, and that a goodly amount will be sent to England for Christmas there is no doubt.

Some time ago Elizabeth Knapp obtained judgment by default against Fred Mosher for $8. Mr. Mosher appeared yesterday and succeeded in having the case reopened, and it will be heard to a jury tomorrow afternoon in the court of Squire Hill.

Two movings were handled at the freight depot yesterday. The family of Mr. Bradshaw moved to Holly, Pa., and the effects of James Canning were received from New Cumberland. Mr. Canning has taken a position in one of the hill potteries.

The councilmen had a great deal of fun at the expense of Councilman Challis, and dubbed him captain, because of the complaints of people who travel along Huston road. He says his boat is a sidewheeler, and Councilman Ashbaugh advised him to bring it to Eighth street, where it could be used acceptably.

An American who had left his native country to travel in Europe with the maxim, "When in Rome do as the Romans do," well in mind, found himself in Marseilles. He wanted some ice cream and went into a restaurant and ordered it.

"What flavor will you have?" asked the waiter.

The American hesitated a moment and then remembered his maxim.

"Oh, garlic, I suppose," he answered.

Judge Craig sentenced the men to 15 years' imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary. Beatty, it is said, is wanted in some of the southern states to answer similar charges.

GAGE'S FINANCIAL PLANS.

He Will Appear Tomorrow With One General Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Secretary Gage will appear before the house committee on banking and currency tomorrow and submit to them in the form of a general bill his recommendations recently made to congress.

The determination of Secretary Gage to appear and submit one general financial bill instead of a number of separate bills, brought out many expressions of satisfaction. It had the effect of clearing up a situation which was becoming strained, and gave promise of an early report to congress on financial bills. The understanding was reached on a result of a visit to the capitol of the solicitor of the treasury, Mr. Connell, representing Mr. Gage. He talked with a number of the other Republican leaders and, it is understood, was advised by Mr. Dingley and others that it would be desirable to embrace financial subjects in one general bill. Later, the solicitor met Chairman Walker and other members of the committee on banking and currency and a general conference was held as to what should be done.

It was made known that Mr. Gage preferred to let the subject go over until after the holiday recess. The committee urged, however, that it desired to take the Gage bill and also that submitted by the monetary conference under consideration during the holidays in order to be in a position to report progress when the house reconvened after the recess. It was decided, therefore, that Mr. Gage should submit his measure tomorrow and appear in person to explain and argue its merits and answer questions from the committee. It was also made clear that the secretary would cover all his proposals in one general bill, instead of cutting the subject up.

This arrangement gave general satisfaction and having accomplished this much the members of the committee canvassed the course they would take as to making an immediate report to the house on the currency question. It was decided that the first thing to be done was to report a bill embodying the three features recommended by the president, viz: A reduction of the tax on circulation to one-half of 1 per cent; the issuance of circulation up to the par value of bonds deposited, and the establishment of small banks in rural communities.

While these will be embodied in the Gage plan, yet as they were specially advised in the president's message, it was felt to be advisable to give the house the opportunity of acting on them at once without waiting for the report on the Gage bill. For these reasons the full committee will be asked to report on the president's plan at once. The draft of a bill has been prepared by Mr. Brodus (Pa.) and this was given to the solicitor of the treasury, who is to return it in time for action by the committee with such suggestions as the treasury authorities may wish to make. As to the comprehensive Gage bill, this and the monetary conference bill will be gone over with care during the holidays, and as a result of the bitter feeling created, members of the banking and currency committee say there is no further doubt that action will be reported to the house soon after the holidays.

EVIDENCE AGAINST ZANOLI.

Examination Shows His Fourth Wife Didn't Die of Fever.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Charles Zanoli, the barber who has been held on suspicion of causing the deaths of some of the many people on whose lives he obtained insurance, has been arraigned in police court on the charge of homicide in causing the death of Jennie Suhmer, his fourth and last wife, by the use of poison or some other means. The charge was based upon the result of the preliminary examination upon the body of Jennie Suhmer, which was exhumed Monday. The death certificate of that woman gave typhoid fever as the cause. The cursory investigation made by the experts proved that typhoid fever was not the direct cause of death.

Zanoli has already pleaded guilty to the charge of defrauding an insurance company, but has positively denied that he was in any way responsible for the deaths of his four wives and the other persons whose insurance he obtained.

Zanoli was held without bail on the charge of homicide. He will be examined on Saturday next.

Throughout the proceedings Zanoli appeared perfectly calm.

CHINA IS INDIFFERENT.

An Explorer So Reports Regarding Germany's Occupation.

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—Explorer William has received in audience Herr Von Brandt, a former German minister to China. The volunteer corps which is going to China exceeds 1,200 men in number. They have been drawn equally from all the army corps.

Herr Eugene S. Wolff, the well-known German explorer, cables to The Tageblatt from Shanghai saying that China is wholly indifferent to the seizure of Kiao-Chow bay.

The German merchants in China and Japan insist upon the establishment of a fortnightly steamship line between Germany and East Asia.

Spain Still After a Cruiser.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Spanish government, it is again announced, is negotiating with the Armstrongs, this time for a cruiser of 4,300 tons, said to be worth £300,000, built for Japan, but which Japan does not want. The vessel is said to be practically ready for sea.

Daniel Practically Re-Elected.

RICHMOND, Dec. 15.—In the voting in the general assembly for United States senator Hon. John W. Daniel practically received the unanimous vote of both houses, the election being a mere matter of form.

Tennyson's Slip.

Lord Tennyson is in his "Life" (volume 2, page 14) reported to have said: "I never put two s's together in any verse of mine. My line is not, as often quoted:

"And freedom broadens slowly down, but:

"And freedom slowly broadens down."

On reading this I opened my Tennyson casually, and the first piece I saw was "Sir Launcelot and Queen Guinevere," which contains four instances of the double s—namely:

Sometimes the linnets piped his song. She seemed a part of joyous spring.

As she fled.

As she swayed.

The next piece is "The Farewell," which has the line:

No more by thee my steps shall be.

The next piece is "The Beggar Maid," which has the consecutive lines:

As shines the moon in clouded skies, She in her poor attire was seen.

Thinking that perhaps Lord Tennyson referred to his blank verse, I turned to the "Dedication of the Idylls," in which I find these two lines:

Or how should England, dreaming of his sons, and

Till God's love set thee at his side again.

Lord Tennyson must, I think, have been misreported.—London Spectator.

Marriage In England.

Englishmen now, it is said, are emulating the French in the absolute disinclination to marry. When they do decide to take this important step, they now frequently insist upon that dot which is part of the French idea of a successful and convenient marriage. The real fact of the matter is that the ordinary modern Englishman has no desire to disturb his bachelor estate. If he has no title, no special wealth, no great historic name to hand down to posterity, single blessedness is good enough for him. This state of mind is attributed by many to the growing independence of women. Possibly this is true, probably it is not. Mercenary spirits boldly assert that marriages in England will, on the whole, never be successful until women bring dots to their husbands, since gold inspires respect if not love. Marriage on a strictly business basis is evidently the future for all English women to look forward to.—San Francisco Argonaut.

His Own Uncle.

A few days ago a young medical student came suddenly face to face with a dear, kind, old, fatherly looking gentleman of highly respectable appearance.

They both stood transfixed. The same idea flashed across both of them.

"Your face is familiar to me—very familiar, but I can't remember where we have met so often."

However, the friendly impulse was carried out. They shook hands warmly, partook of a friendly glass and departed, still ignorant of each other's name and occupation.

But the young man was determined to solve the problem, and he seized on a waiter.

"Who is that distinguished stranger with the long white hair?"

And the waiter whispered slowly: "If you please, sir, that's the pawnbroker."—London Answers.

Refreshing.

Mistress (to unsophisticated maid from the country)—I'm sadly afraid I shall have to dismiss you, Eliza—your untidy ways, and then the things you break!

Unsophisticated Maid—Oh, if you please, mum, don't send me away yet. My mother says if I stay here and learn how to do things I can then go to a real good place in some high family.—Moonshine.

Robberies During the Funeral.

CANTON, Dec. 15.—During the progress of the funeral of Mrs. McKinley several robberies occurred. The home of Ervin Marshall was entered and a large quantity of jewelry was secured. J. D. Kramer's tailoring establishment, opposite the church, was looted of diamonds, watches and other jewelry. The police arrested a man who just got out of the workhouse, and part of the missing articles were recovered. A number of pockets were also picked of valueless.

Broad Move for Christianity.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—A movement is on foot among the local ministers of all denominations to organize an evangelistic alliance for Pittsburgh and Allegheny. A call has been issued for a general meeting to be held Monday afternoon. The plan is to have every family in the city visited every three months in the interest of Christianity.

Useful Adjunct.

"I always like to have at least one boarder who is a little slow about paying," Mrs. Hashcroft admitted to her dearest friend. "A man of that kind, especially a young man, is always so handy to use up all the chicken necks, the cold biscuits and so on."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Washington and Jefferson College Glee and Instrumental club—Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo clubs—will again visit us as soon after Santa Claus has made his visit as possible, namely: Monday evening, the 27th. ## HELD A UNION MEETING

AN ECHO OF THE SWAN CASE

It Was Heard In the Presbyterian Meeting Before Adjournment—Other Business of the Sessions—Where They Will Meet the Next Time.

Steubenville has this week been entertaining the presbyteries of the Presbyterian churches.

Steubenville presbytery was opened by a sermon by the retiring moderator, Doctor McKinley. It was followed by communion. Rev. R. T. Price, of Scio, presided.

Tuesday morning, after some routine business, Doctor Eagleson was granted the privilege of laboring as an evangelist.

In regard to the claim of Doctor Forbes for nearly $70, due as salary from Bloomfield church, the presbytery decided that the church had settled with the pastor.

At 11 o'clock a joint meeting of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian presbyteries was held. The two moderators made some very appropriate introductory remarks. Brief speeches interspersed with singing of psalms and prayers were made by Doctor Taggart, Doctor Swaney, Revs. H. W. Lowry, N. K. Crowe, Thomas Hanna, Joseph C. Kreusch, W. C. Dunn, W. F. Weir, A. G. Eagleson and J. M. Jamieson.

At the suggestion of Rev. Dr. Eagleson a resolution was adopted recommending that at the next meeting of these two bodies the ministers recite memoriter the Shorter Catechism, the moderators to ask the questions without the book.

Doctor Jamieson offered the following: Resolved, That the conference now rise and report to our respective presbyteries that the conference was very fraternal, and it is hoped, shall be conducive to our efficiency in the Lord's work and kindly regards for each other.

Reverend Eaton, of Carrollton, who had been elected moderator of the Presbyterian body, presided at the meeting last night, and Doctor Ewing, of India, delivered a powerful lecture. Much work was done in the afternoon, the principal part of which empowered the clerk and permanent clerk to select the next place of meeting, and the report of the committee on the Swan case. The report was signed by C. J. Hunter, Henry Webb and R. G. Richards. It is as follows:

"We disapprove of the public censure of the presbytery of Steubenville as made from the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, East Liverpool, on Sabbath, Sept. 19, 1897, and ask if it is proper to spread on the minutes of the church records of such censure.

"We find no statement recorded of the action of Steubenville presbytery, done at the Second Presbyterian church, East Liverpool, on April 21, 1897, handing back the case of James L. Swan, to be tried 'de novo' by the session of the First Presbyterian church, East Liverpool.

"We find no account of the final disposal of the above James L. Swan by the presbytery of Steubenville, except in the statement, as above referred to, censuring the Steubenville presbytery for alleged unfairness in not granting a public trial of the above case."

The report was adopted, and presbytery adjourned.

U. P. Presbytery.

The attendance of ministers and elders at the United Presbyterian meeting was about 30. Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Calcutta, who was appointed to preach the opening sermon, was absent. Dr. Jamieson, of Hopedale, opened the presbytery with prayer. Rev. J. R. Greene, of East Liverpool, the moderator, conducted devotional exercises. Rev. J. C. Berrien was invited to a seat in the body. Presbytery then went into a conference, Rev. J. G. Atcheson presiding and conducting devotions. Dr. J. C. Taggart, of East Liverpool, read a most able paper on "The Church of the future—its Theology." The evening session closed with prayer by Rev. J. C. Berrien.

Tuesday morning Rev. Barrackman, of Salineville, conducted the devotional exercises. Rev. W. C. Dunn's resignation from Scroggsfield church was accepted. Rev. J. W. Best was dismissed and certified to the presbytery of Northwestern Iowa. Dr. Floyd was given the floor to present the home department work of the Sunday school.

The next meeting will be held in Wellsville.

—Miss Ada Bristol returned to her home in Warren today after a long visit in this city.

PALESTINE IS HAPPY

Because Holiness Taylor Has Departed.

FEELS FOR EAST LIVERPOOL

If the Apostle of Self Glorification Is to Continue His Money Making Here—An Example of What He Thinks of Those Who Do Not Agree With Him.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—We are having prosperity in East Palestine, thanks to the grand old Republican party, a party which has ever looked after the best interests of the masses, at least from an industrial standpoint. We have lately been blessed (?) with a visit from an individual calling himself "Holiness Taylor." According to his side of the story he is the quintessence of holiness and purity, and every one who does not believe in his especial doctrine is straight on the road to hades. The fellow is not modest, by any means, but blows his bugle vehemently. He boasts that his Christianity "is all wool and a yard wide," and that his "wool" can be found hanging to the bushes all over the land, from Maine to Colorado. I understand that he has left here and that he may thrust his presence upon East Liverpool. Such being the case, I feel like saying: "Blessed is East Palestine and woe unto East Liverpool," for, in my estimation, the fellow is a loud-mouthed, blatant humbug, working the racket he does simply on account of it being an easy way to make a living. On one occasion I had the misfortune to attend a meeting where the fellow was speaking. At the conclusion of his harangue, called a sermon, he said:

"All who are believers in our doctrine of holiness and sanctification; those who are free from sin and temptation; those who are living a life of absolute consecration, will please stand up."

Quite a number arose. But there were a number of Christian men and women who did not; men and women who knew that their life was a constant battle against the powers of sin and darkness; men and women who conquered the arch enemy of mankind only after a stern struggle, through him who hath loved us and given himself for us; men and women who evidence their Christianity by their every day walk and conversation; who pay their honest debts and are in love and sympathy with their neighbors, and who do not sit in judgment upon their neighbors, believing that to be the province of God alone, and this blatant fellow, in the most brutal manner, and with a voice charged with venom and vindictiveness, shouted out:

"That's right, sit there and go to hell!"

I would simply ask this fellow if he will dare assert that he is aiming to pattern after the example of the meek and lowly Nazarene.

TAKEN HOME.

Janitor Broome Will Be Cared For by His Parents.

Irwin Broome, janitor of the First Presbyterian church, who has been seriously ill at his home in Drury lane, was taken to the home of his parents at Cameron, O., where he will receive the best of attention until he has recovered. He was accompanied by his nurse, Harry Vincent.

On the River.

Heavy rains were general in the upper valleys Monday night and yesterday, and it is thought a coal boat stage will be reached before long. Many tow boats are on their way up, and although the southern coal markets are well supplied, there is still a large amount in the upper pools to be sent south.

The marks at the wharf today registered 9 feet and rising.

The Iron Age passed this port in May for New Orleans and is now on its way up. It will pass this place tomorrow.

Passed up, Virginia; down, Kanawha.

Business Is Better.

This morning 45 baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny. This is the largest shipment of ware in this manner since the first part of November when 55 baskets were one day shipped.

The early train, on which the ware was shipped, was delayed five minutes.

Look After Market Street.

Commissioner Finley should direct his attention for a short time to the lower part of Market street. The mud is very deep. The street has been in bad condition for several months.

The Citizen's National bank, with headquarters on Fourth street, at the old postoffice, is now ready for business.

It Is Ridiculous—

For any man to claim to make money by selling at a loss. It's simple to say it, and simple to swallow it. If the farmer raised only grain for grain what he planted, he would starve. If the merchant sells his goods dollar for dollar at the price he bought them, he is out in time, labor and expenses.

—WE MUST LIVE.—

And we live by our profits, but we don't prey on the public. Our price is actually lower than the much bragged up "below cost" of others. Good goods, fresh and new, don't have to be sold below cost to get rid of them. Our goods are good—they pay us to handle and you to buy. This week, and until Christmas, we have the center of our large room filled with

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 15.

BUSINESS men throughout the country will commend the ways and means committee of congress for its determination to allow the Dingley bill to stand. It simply means that the measure and business will be given an honest trial.

REPUBLICANS should not lose sight of the fact that they should correct the evils within the party. Let them at the primaries select the right men for office, and then go before the people asking the support of all who favor good government.

CONGRESS is already deep in its work showing the wisdom of being prepared before the session really opens. If the statesmen can only be convinced of the necessity of hastening the completion of that work perhaps the country would feel better.

THE emperor of Germany should have little to say of divinely appointed sovereigns until he ceases this nasty habit of bulldozing every little two by twice power not in position to offer anything in the way of resistance. There seems more of devilish ingenuity than divine inspiration in his course.

WE should all hope that the next speaker of the Ohio house will be a strong man with sufficient power to control the gentlemen before him. When we remember that among other legislators there will be one with a bill providing for the abolition of capital punishment, it can be readily seen that a strong man is needed in the speaker's chair.

ANY opposition that may develop to the passage of a law restricting immigration will not represent the feeling of the average American. While we all want more people on this side of the water, and are anxiously awaiting the time when the government of Uncle Sam will protect hundreds of millions, we do not desire any part of those millions to be the ignorantly vicious and criminal classes that other nations will not have.

ANOTHER GOOD MOVE.

Attorney General Monnett has rendered an opinion which will doubtless do Ohio a great deal of good. He believes the Bell Telephone company should pay taxes on the instruments in use as do other corporations and individuals on real property. Since the concern does business in this state to the amount of $5,883,000 a year, it seems nothing but plain justice that the company should pay something for the privileges it enjoys with such profitable results. The movement is but an extension of the idea put forward by Governor Bushnell—that of making foreign corporations do something toward relieving the burden of taxation in Ohio.

GOOD ROADS.

The members of the legislature who desire to endear themselves to the people can make much headway by working in the direction of better roads. The question needs no argument. Any man who will go anywhere in Ohio at this season can find ample proof in support of the movement if he but keeps his eyes open. Better roads are needed for a score of good reasons, and it is only a matter of time until we have them, but we might save ourselves a vast deal of annoyance if we could have them now. They will not cost any less 20 years from now. A sensible measure providing for the construction and maintenance of a well planned system of highways would certainly pass both branches of the legislature with little opposition. Why then does not some statesman immortalize himself and do as the people desire?

MORE FROM MR. TAYLOR

Baptists and Methodists Under His Ban.

SOME VERY STONG EXPRESSIONS

Were Used to Show His Contempt For the Methodist Protestant Ministers Who Forced Him to Leave the Conference. All the News of Wellsville.

Holiness Taylor talked last night to a large audience in spite of the rain, and his address was as usual more forcible, than polished.

"The Baptists," he said, "get along very well in this part of the country because it is close to the river, but you know they die when they get a little farther inland. I believe miracles could be performed in this day only people pay more attention to their bodies than to their souls. Persecution is good for Christians. It sifts them and brings out their sweetest qualities. But do not mind it. Put on a hide like a rhinoceros, and let them shoot. My hide is sticking full of arrows. Learn to forgive. Some of the early Christians were lashed until their backs looked like a railroad map of Massachusetts. Give up tobacco if you are properly converted."

"A Methodist Protestant preacher here five years ago sat with his feet on the fence and squirted amber into the middle of the street. He belonged to the crowd that expelled me from conference. Stop talking about popes and papacy, the M. P. church has plenty of two cent spider legged popes in it. The church was formed to protest against the sins in the old Methodist Episcopal church. The whole rotten gang started there. Daniel was cast in the lions' den to feed them. I have been feeding lions for 20 years, and I am the healthiest looking Daniel you ever saw. In fact I don't feel good unless 20 or 30 preachers are chewing at me. When the Methodist preachers turned me out at Liverpool I was glad to wipe the dust off my feet and leave the rotten crowd. Only three animals chew tobacco—the Australian goat, certain two-legged animals and the worm that feeds on its leaves. I fight tobacco because it means spiritual death. Get a clean mouth first; your heart is two feet below."

The sermon caused much comment today.

TONSILINE CURES SORE THROAT.

Read what a well-known Minister writes us about Tonsiline:

East Palestine, O., April 8, 1895.

The Tonsiline Co.:

I take pleasure in saying that we have used Tonsiline in the family for ulcerated sore throat, and it not only seemed to prevent the attack from being so severe as formerly, but cured the throat completely in a very few days. When any one of us has sore throat of any kind, the rush is for the Tonsiline bottle, and that is the last of it. It is certainly a most excellent remedy.

Yours very truly,

D. F. DICKSON.

TONSILINE SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOME. Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy are quickly cured by Tonsiline.

COUNCIL AND SHRADER

Promises Something Interesting In the Future.

IT'S ALL ABOUT A BIG BILL

The Salary Ordinances Were Introduced, and Street Paving Was Discussed--It Was a Long Session With Plenty of Business.

Council held a very lengthy session last evening and transacted a great deal of business.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock, with all members present except Messrs. Olnhausen and Horwell.

The minutes were read and approved, and a resolution to improve Franklin street from Sixth street to the Horn switch, by paving the sidewalks and grading the roadway, was placed on its third reading. Doctor Marshall remarked that if the people of Eighth street survived this winter it was probable they would want the street paved next year, and moved that the resolution be amended so that the paving of the street would be included. The resolution as amended passed unanimously.

An ordinance to improve Pine street from Ravine street to Thompson avenue was placed on its third reading. Mr. Stewart said it would be impossible to do the work this year, but President Peach stated that while it was the wrong time to commence the work there had been two or three cases of sickness in that vicinity on account of the hole in the street, and it was a question whether the health of the people should be jeopardized by laying it over until spring. Mr. Marshall said as a sanitary measure it should be done at once. The ordinance was then passed.

Mr. Marshall asked what had become of the ordinance condemning the right of way for Pennsylvania avenue, and Solicitor Grosshans replied that service had been made upon all the parties who lived in the city and it would be necessary to advertise to get service upon the rest. Upon motion of Mr. Marshall the necessary notice was ordered published at once.

The Edwin M. Knowles company were granted permission to occupy the south 55 feet of First street for a period of 92 years, for a consideration of $5 per year. The mayor collected $115 in fines and licenses during the month of November, and the fire department had 31 police calls, made 37 arrests and had five ambulance calls.

The pay ordinance was next, and a long discussion followed its appearance. The bill of A. J. Boyce for $425 for plates had been signed by Messrs. Stewart and Cain, of claims committee, and Mr. George was asked to explain where the plates went. He stated that part of the plates were used in Cook street, and the expense should be collected from the street railway company and the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad. The others were used in various parts of the city. He thought it was a question whether the street railway would pay their share, as an estimate had been furnished them sometime ago, but they had paid no attention to it.

Mr. Olnhausen said a committee should take a tour and see whether the plates had been used. President Peach said he thought it was time the street railway paid the city what they owed, amounting to $1,600 or $1,700, and advised that immediate action be taken.

Mr. Stewart remarked that this had nothing to do with the bill of A. J. Boyce and the pay roll was passed.

Mr. Marshall moved the solicitor notify the street railway company of the amount due, and if it was not paid in 10 days proceedings to annul their franchise should be commenced.

Mr. Olnhausen thought it was poor policy, as the money should be collected first.

The solicitor called attention to the fact that the ordinance provided that the engineer should furnish the company with the bill.

Mr. Marshall remarked that this had been done, and said: "There is no use wasting time. Let us settle on that estimate and do business. We should not let John Shrader or anybody else make fools or tools of us."

Solicitor Grosshans said he hardly knew how the city could get a prior lien on the mortgage bonded indebtedness of the road, and the only recourse was a civil action against them if their bond was large enough.

The motion was carried unanimously, and President Peach said: "I just want to impress on the solicitor that he use every effort to collect the bill before the ordinance is prepared, as $2,000 is more to us than annulling their franchise."

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The solicitor suggested a suit, but Mr. Marshall said they wanted no suits, and if the $2,000 was lost it was lost, and the mistake was made in not collecting it before the work was commenced.

The estimates on the paving of College street and Lincoln avenue showed a total cost of $3,975.73, and there was still due Contractor Rinehart $1,975.73. The estimates on Cook and Jefferson showed $3,648.31, and there was still due Contractor Ryan $1,149.51. A bill of $56.20 for extra work by Contractor Rinehart started a discussion which lasted fully 20 minutes, and ended by paying the bills and referring the one for extra work to the street committee. The plumbers' ordinance was discussed a short time, and a resolution was passed to improve Oak street from Bradshaw avenue to Minerva street. The assessment ordinance to pay for the Elm street sewer was passed, and a resolution to improve Minerva street carried.

The ordinance to annex contiguous territory was referred to the ordinance committee after Mr. Marshall had made a request that Neville institute be left in the township.

The ordinance paying the mayor a salary was placed on its first reading. Mr. Marshall said the ordinance denied the mayor the right of certain fees which he was allowed by state law.

Solicitor Grosshans explained that it was his intention when the ordinance was written to have it discussed.

Mr. Marshall moved the clerk furnish each member with a copy and said: "It is simply a question whether you make the good citizens pay for the crimes or the law breakers pay it. Under salary the good citizens pay it. The fee system is bad, but whether it is worse than this is another question."

President Peach remarked that there would come a time to discuss the ordinance, and it went to the police committee.

The ordinance creating the office of chief of police went to the police committee.

The water works trustees were ordered to move a fire plug at the power house and put in a new one in Helana. The $1,000 in the sewer fund was turned over to the sewer commissioners, and Mr. Cain called attention to a light at the Dresden pottery which the residents wish to have moved.

President Peach said it was time that bonds were issued to pay for the recent improvements and Clerk Hanley was instructed to purchase hat racks for the council chamber. Engineer George was instructed to survey the Broadway wharf.

Steadily Growing.

Ceramic Rebekah lodge, No. 286, I. O. O. F., at its meeting last night initiated ten new members, and, from appearance, the membership will still increase. This has been a very prosperous year for the lodge in every way, and they are looking forward to the honor of entertaining the Ohio assembly of Rebekahs here in 1899.

Fireman Terrence Better.

Fireman Terrence, who has been ill for some days at his home in Church alley suffering from tonsillitis, is much improved. This morning the physician had the fever well in hand, and with care the fireman is expected to be out next week.

The Japs.

The Oriental Specialty company will appear at the Grand this evening in one of the best programs ever seen in the city. The specialties are first class, and the company have everywhere been greeted by crowded houses.

The Lecture.

Edward H. Frey lectured at the Young Men's Christian association, last night. The entertainment was undoubtedly among the best ever conducted by the association, and was enjoyed by a large audience.

TID BITS.

Artful Dodger Discourseth on Vanities and Vexations.

How vain hath been all the efforts of the blue coat who had aspirations for the office of City Marshal? The new dispensation will select whom the authors thereof believe to be the best fitted for the place. The fellow who failed to make arrests, for fear of losing votes in the spring time, hath counted without his host. "Vanity, vanity; all is vanity and vexation of spirit."

"He who boasteth that he standeth, let him take heed, else he falleth." Dago. Respectfully referred to the individual or individuals who occupy the same pedestal as did the Pharisee of biblical fame, he who thanked God that he was not as other men.

There are indications that the position or office of mayor of East Liverpool will be made one of honor, with sufficient salary attached thereto to enable the incumbent to earn an honest living. The next move will be to place an honorable citizen in the position, a man who will reflect credit upon our prosperous little city.

Prayer is a grand feature and a wonderful power, when properly used and applied. But the man who prays that the Lord will send him potatoes, and then refuses to dig them from Mother Earth, will go without potatoes all his natural life, cursed with the disease known as slothful, or every day laziness.

"Option. The scholar at the head of the class will please spell the word." O-p-t-i-o-n. "That's right; hit her the first time. Now, me boy, define the word."

"Well, teacher, I'm a little rusty on definitions, but I'll do my level best. I've been watching so-called real estate deals lately in East Liverpool, and the contemplated building of potteries, glass houses, tin mills, etc., and I will define a man who has "options" as a fellow who has an awful lot of influence and gall and mighty little cash; a fellow who buys up whole townships of desirable land, pays about TEN DOLLARS for the same, and then heralds himself as the owner of Ohio and West Virginia, with a patent right on the waters of the Ohio river."

"Right you are, young fellow; you've hit the nail on the head. You may be short on definitions as laid down on the book; but you're a keen observer and a good judge of the average real estate transaction in this neck of woods."

DODGER."

TO THE PUBLIC.

Will You Please Report to General Lyon Post?

Citizens of East Liverpool and vicinity, you will confer a great favor on the comrades of General Lyon post, No. 44, G. A. R., if you will help the memorial committee by sending them information respecting the names of comrades who have answered the last roll call, and are entitled to a place on the roll at Memorial Hall. You can address Quartermaster McCain, chairman of the committee, or any comrade of the post, verbally or by letter. Give name, regiment and company. Read carefully the following, showing those who are entitled to place:

First--The names of deceased soldiers who were citizens of Liverpool township when enlisted, and who were honorably discharged.

Second--The names of deceased honorably discharged soldiers buried in Liverpool township.

Third--The names of all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who, having enlisted outside of Liverpool township, and afterwards being citizens of Liverpool township, and having died therein, were buried elsewhere.

A Pleasant Prospect.

A prominent member of the board of health, when asked today when the board would hold another meeting, said: "I have been waiting to go to a meeting since last June, and I am not going to make any preparations to go to another meeting until next June."

Failed to Pay.

The water works force today shut off a number of consumers who had failed to pay their water rent.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Colonel Hill was in Lisbon on business.

William Erlanger was a Pittsburg visitor today.

John Gilson, of Salineville, was in the city yesterday on business. He was the guest of Arthur Savage, in Third street.

WAS READY FOR DEATH

TWO ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE

The Individual Did His Best to Throw Himself Under the Pony While It Was at Work on the Horn Switch—Will Try Again.

One resident of this place is alive this afternoon because Conductor Jordan, who has charge of the engine which does the switching in the local yards, would not allow him to die.

The man is a well known character whose name has often appeared on the blotter at city hall. He said nothing to anyone of his intention, but when the pony was at work on the Horn switch he threw himself on the track. The conductor saw the action and caught the man by the coat and drew him away. Soon afterward the fellow made another attempt, and was again saved by the conductor.

He declared he was ready to die and did not thank anyone for saving him.

Heavy Freight Traffic.
The business in the freight department of Cleveland and Pittsburg road is at its height, and the reports sent to the head office each day from this place show that there is a very small decrease over the booming days of September and October.

Regular freight trains are run in sections and the drays that passed through the city this morning were among the largest trains ever run. One train had 80 cars.

Liked the New Preacher.
The service in St. Stephen's church last evening was largely attended, and the sermon by the Reverend Weary, of Haron, was well thought of by those present.

Reverend Weary left for his home this morning, and it is thought that arrangements can be made to have him preach his first sermon as rector of the parish in this city one week from next Sunday.

Good Trade In Trees.
It was said yesterday by a man who deals in Christmas trees that more trees would be sold this year than for five years. It is known that one man has secured an order for 400 trees, and as many more as he is able to get. The prices this year will be from 25 cents to one dollar.

Shipments Are Brisk.
Yesterday was a brisk day at the freight depot and a large amount of business was handled. Shipments have been more brisk this week than for some time, and every night the pony has had occasion to work late. Last evening it was 9:30 o'clock when the crew was ready to leave for the shops.

It Will Be Costly.
It is expected that by next week the building of the large water tank at the light plant will be commenced. The tank will be built on a lot near the east side of the building, and will have a capacity of 1,000 gallons. When the work is completed the pump will be erected over the well. The entire work will cost in the neighborhood of $500.

Denied a Report.
The report circulated yesterday to the effect that William Erlanger intended to purchase the Crokall property at the corner of Washington and Fifth streets, was without foundation. The report was denied by Mr. Erlanger last evening.

Lost Pocketbooks.
There has been an epidemic of lost pocketbooks in the city recently. Several were missed Saturday night, and at least one yesterday. As only a few of them have been found there is a suspicion that some smart thief and not simple chance is responsible.

Troubles of Husband and Child.
Mrs. J. E. Elwell, West End, child was ailing, tried U-No Worm Lozenges, passed stomach and seat worms; also her husband had no appetite, but after taking U-No Tonic, appetite good.

Married by Professor Reed.
Mr. William Evans and Miss Eva May Myers were married last evening by Prof. O. S. Reed. They are residents of this city and will at once go to house-keeping.

Fire In Dover Castle.
DOVER, England, Dec. 15.—A small fire has occurred in Dover castle.

DOINGS IN EUROPE.

Epitomized Notes on Events Reflecting Life From Across the Atlantic.

An examination of the tomb of J. an Jacques Rousseau, in the ile des Peupliers, which has recently taken place, showed the grave to be untenanted, no trace of the body having been found beneath the monument. In the presence of this disappointment three hypotheses present themselves. Some hold that the body was hidden elsewhere on the island. Others insist that the philosopher's body was taken to Paris in 1794 and still rests in the sarcophagus which lies beneath the dome of the Pantheon. The minister of public instruction has given his consent to the opening of this sarcophagus. Should it be found empty, the conviction will obtain that Rousseau's bones were disinterred by fanatics soon after his death and scattered.

William Tell has dwindled into a myth. Rousseau's tomb, which has been the bourne of so many pilgrimages during the last 100 years, has now been discovered to be untenanted, as stated above, and now Bonivard, the "Prisoner of Chillon" so beautifully sung of by Lord Byron, is shown to be something very much akin to a fraud. Visitors to the old castle of Chillon, on the lake of Geneva, have long gazed with reverent eyes on the track worn in the stone pavement around the pillar to which the captive was chained during his long incarceration. This year the famous footprints mysteriously disappeared. An inquiry was made in the cantonal legislature as to what had become of them. Thereupon M. Vecqurat, councillor of state, rose and unblushingly explained that they had never existed at all, but were artificially manufactured to satisfy the demands of a sentimental public. This year the usual repairs were done so late that there was no time to renew this venerable sham.

A story is in circulation at the court of The Hague concerning the young queen of Holland which is destined to illustrate that she fully shares the pronounced aversion of her subjects for Germany and prefers in every particular the French. It seems that on the last occasion when she met Emperor William she insisted on responding in French to the remarks which he addressed to her in German, and on his asking her why she did not speak German she tartly replied that it was merely because she preferred French.

Germany's young crown prince has recently furnished another illustration of his dreadful precocity, and bids fair in time to develop into as all embracing a genius as his imperial father. Although but 15 years of age, he has taken to writing poems, which are being lauded in the German press as something quite extraordinary in their delicacy of sentiment and knowledge of meter. Fortunately the person to whom all his verses have until now been addressed is his mother, whose hair has been whitened by anxiety in connection with her husband to such a degree that in spite of her being considerably under 40 years of age it is as silvery as that of her mother-in-law, the Empress Frederick, and of her grandmother, Queen Victoria.

It is only now that the true circumstances which led to the murder of the late shah of Persia have become known through the revelation of an Austrian diplomat who represented his country in Teheran at the time of the murder, but who is now on the retired list. It seems that the murder had nothing to do either with religious fanaticism or with revenge for the persecution to which the Babbist sect had been subjected in Persia, but that it was a mere case of private and personal vengeance. Years ago the murderer, then a merchant, had sold some valuable articles to the third son of the late shah, who was minister of war at the time. On demanding his money he was thrown into prison, kept there seven years, his pretty young wife, to whom he was passionately attached, being meanwhile forcibly appropriated by the prince. After his release he fled to Constantinople, where he made the acquaintance of the Afghan sheik Diemal-ed Din, who recently died in the sultan's palace. He obtained from him letters of introduction to personages in Persia hostile to the shah, returned in disguise and killed the king of kings, crying as he fired, "One must fell the tree that bears bad fruit," thus making the father responsible for the wrong deeds of his son.

With regard to the crusade that has been in progress in England for some time past in favor of the opening of museums and similar public institutions to the people on Sunday, that being to all intents and purposes the only day in the week which the laboring classes have at their disposal for visiting and "taking in" anything of the kind, its promoters have just secured two important recruits to the cause in the persons of the Dukes of Westminster and of Wellington. These two peers have not confined their adhesion to the propaganda to any mere expression of sympathy, but have publicly announced that henceforth and until further notice their London mansions, or rather palaces—that is to say, the picture galleries, ballrooms, banqueting halls, in one word all the state apartments—will be thrown open to the public from 1 to 5 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.—New York Tribune.

WEYLER NOW IN MADRID.

Adherents Carried Him on Their Shoulders—Called on Queen Today.

MADRID, Dec. 13.—Lieutenant General Weyler has arrived here. He was received at the railway platform by General Azcarra, former premier; General Borrero, former commander of the Sixth Army corps, and by a number of Republicans, Carlists, Conservatives and Robeloists.

As he alighted from the train they cheered him and then carried him shoulder high to the entrance of the railway station, where he took a carriage and was rapidly driven off. There was no further incident, the public appearing indifferent.

The partisans of General Weyler pretend that a crowd of 8,000 people tendered him an ovation with shouts of "long live Weyler. Death to the yankees" and the like. He was received by the queen regent today.

El Correo Espanol says that the Carlists have abandoned their projected demonstration against President McKinley's message to congress, as they have not been able to agree on the subject.

General Weyler in the course of an interview said he knew that the Canovas cabinet in August last gave the Washington government to understand that it was the nation's will to pursue his (Weyler's) policy in Cuba until the rebellion should be suppressed, without ever consenting to American interference. He failed to understand how the United States, silent before the declarations of Canovas, now adopted in President McKinley's message a "tone insulting to Spain and the Spanish army."

He believed, he declared, that the government should be compelled to publish the Canovas note as a satisfaction to the army and also to protest by all means in its power against President McKinley's message to congress.

To his personal knowledge, he asserted, the generals residing in Madrid felt keenly on this point, while he was confident that all the conservative element of the country would combine to avert the ruin and dishonor of the nation.

It will be a pleasant one if you consult him. He won't charge a cent for his services which will include selection of route, the procuring of through tickets, reservation of sleeping car accommodations, and arranging all details. Better drop him a letter today and find out the big help he can be to intending travelers.

Excursion Rates.

Following the annual custom, ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines will sell excursion tickets Dec. 24, 25 and 31, 1897, and Jan. 1, 1898, for the Christmas and New Year holidays. Tickets will not be sold to adults for less than 25 cents, nor to children for less than 15 cents. Return limit of excursion tickets will include Jan. 4, 1898. For rates, time of trains and further information please apply to nearest ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines.

Will Make Jugs.

Salem believes that it will get a pottery even though it did not land the Liverpool plant. This time W. M. Brewer wants to erect a plant for the manufacture of stone ware. He has a jug, a novelty, he wishes to put on the market.

May Return.

Thomas Waggoner, who has been employed at the Union pottery for several weeks as bookkeeper, left last evening for his home in Brownsville. It is probable he will return in the early part of January and take the same position permanently.

A Bealed Face.

Mr. James Shay, the popular salesman with William Erlanger, has been suffering very severely for the past three days and nights from a bealed face, the intense pain robbing him of sleep.

Ex-minister to Persia Dead.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Dec. 15.—Alexander McDonald, ex-minister to Persia, has died here. He was born in Lynchburg about 76 years ago and had lived here nearly all his life.

MUST CLEAN THE JAIL

Councilman Olnhausen Has an Idea.

HE INSPECTED THE PLACE

finding it pretty bad He Made Some suggestions—Steam Heat Would Cost a Little Money, but It Would Cut Down the City's Gas Bills.

At the next meeting of council Mr. Olnhausen will ask that a resolution be passed authorizing the renovating and remodeling of the city jail.

Yesterday afternoon he and Chief Johnson inspected that part of city hall and many changes were proposed. After the trip Mr. Olnhausen said:

"That is the first time I was ever inside of the jail, and that the various councils have allowed it to remain in the condition it is so long is a conundrum to me. I want to see the sanitary condition improved, and more ventilation would not be out of place. Then the place needs a good cleaning. I understand the floors are cleaned thoroughly at times, but arrangements should be made to have it cleaned at least once a week. I would like also to see the entire building heated with steam. This will do away with the large gas bills the city is compelled to pay. A large heater could be bought at a reasonable figure and placed in the cellar, a boiler could be annexed and pipes run through the various rooms. This would cause a little expenditure of money at the start, but I am satisfied the city would save many dollars in the long run."

PUDD'N'HEAD WILSON.

A Splendid Production by a Splendid Company.

Edwin F. Mayo and a good company presented "Pudd'n'head Wilson," at the Grand last night. The performance was one of the most satisfactory ever witnessed in the city.

Mayo as Pudd'n'head, the central figure, is the self-possessed genius the author intended when he wrote the story, and the other parts are well taken. Entertaining and humorous, the play is filled with sufficient of the sterner side of life to make it intensely interesting.

The occasion was the annual benefit of the stage hands, and the opera house was in consequence tastefully decorated in evergreens and flowers, while the electrical effects were pretty. A glimpse of life as it is behind the scenes was given by the attaches and loudly applauded. The music of Professor Nowling's orchestra was a feature of the evening.

IMPORTANT REPORTS.

Trades Council Will Consider Them Tonight.

The regular meeting of Trades council tonight will be important because a number of reports are to be considered.

Chief among them is that of the delegates who attended the Columbus convention. The meeting excited much interest here and the members of the council are anxious to know the details.

Another matter of considerable moment is a report from the grievance committee who have been considering an unusual case.

TWO INCHES AN HOUR.

That Is the Last Report From Muddy Huston Road.

"How is Huston road this morning?" asked the News Review of a bespattered hill top resident as he came in to town.

"The old thing has overflowed its banks and is rising two inches an hour," was the ready response as he mournfully glanced down at his yellow shoes and then with a look of disgust continued on his way.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

G. Bendheim was in Pittsburg today. The stock exchange failed to meet this morning.

The street force are today draining roads and cleaning crossings.

J. B. Early, Jr., of Tarentum, is visiting his parents in Second street.

W. E. Dunlap is confined to his home with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

There was a shortage of gas today, and as a result almost all the potteries were complaining.

No arrests were made last night, and the family about city hall were taking life easy today.

W. H. Sturtevant, of Fourth street, has gone to Conneaut to attend his father's funeral.

Many traveling men are returning to the city. They will remain until after the first of the year.

Will Daugherty, of Steubenville, was in the city today attending to electrical work in several potteries.

Alfred Day, who is connected with the Steubenville pottery, was in the city a short time yesterday on business.

J. G. Mooney, representing the Maple Leaf route, was in the city today on business. He came from Cincinnati.

Howard Walters is confined to his home in Calcutta road, near the cemetery, by a bad attack of rheumatism.

The printers at the decorating shop of the East Liverpool pottery will finish today and prepare for the holiday loaf.

A walk was laid this morning from Oak street to Avondale street by an enterprising resident who objected to using a boat.

An electric crane manufactured in Alliance passed through the city this morning on its way east. Three cars were required for its transportation.

Rev. Dr. Mueller, a prominent Methodist divine of Cleveland who is noted as a pulpit orator, will preach at the First M. E. church of this city one week from next Sunday.

The committee having in charge the spiritual work of the Epworth league of the First M. E. church, will hold a meeting Saturday evening to consider plans for the coming year.

The case against Harrison Headley for not sending his daughter to school has been withdrawn by Truant Officer Beardmore, as it was ascertained that the child was over 15 years of age.

Commissioner Finley is on the war-path, and is devoting this afternoon in an endeavor to ascertain who the parties are who are violating the ordinance against throwing paper in the streets. He is determined the practice shall cease.

The holiday money order business at the postoffice as yet does not show any material increase over a regular day's business. Great Britain will catch the bulk of the foreign business from this office, and that a goodly amount will be sent to England for Christmas there is no doubt.

Some time ago Elizabeth Knapp obtained judgment by default against Fred Mosher for $8. Mr. Mosher appeared yesterday and succeeded in having the case reopened, and it will be heard to a jury tomorrow afternoon in the court of Squire Hill.

Two movings were handled at the freight depot yesterday. The family of Mr. Bradshaw moved to Holly, Pa., and the effects of James Canning were received from New Cumberland. Mr. Canning has taken a position in one of the hill potteries.

The councilmen had a great deal of fun at the expense of Councilman Challis, and dubbed him captain, because of the complaints of people who travel along Huston road. He says his boat is a sidewheeler, and Councilman Ashbaugh advised him to bring it to Eighth street, where it could be used acceptably.

An American who had left his native country to travel in Europe with the maxim, "When in Rome do as the Romans do," well in mind, found himself in Marseilles. He wanted some ice cream and went into a restaurant and ordered it.

"What flavor will you have?" asked the waiter.

The American hesitated a moment and then remembered his maxim.

"Oh, garlic, I suppose," he answered.
